EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

Tuesday evening's

Eucharistic Adoration 5:00pm – 6:30pm

Benediction 6:30pm

May the Heart of Jesus, in the most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world even to the end of time. Amen ~ The Divine Praises

By coming to adoration, we are handing Him the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence, as the rays of the sun bathe our bodies in light. If we can take the time to pull away from the busyness and distractions of life and just sit at His feet, He will lead us." ~ Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration

GOSPEL MARK 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

What's Involved Here?

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Twice a year we offer Pre-Cana here in our parish. That's when engaged couples gather with married couples who share their experiences on a variety of marital topics (for the record, engaged couples arrive skeptical and, thanks to our great Pre-Cana Team, they always leave really glad they came). I usually open the Friday night session with a talk on the meaning of marriage as a Sacrament.

Last month, as I was going through the vows with the engaged couples, I told them: "You will promise to love each other in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health." Then I added: "And you will have absolutely no idea what you are promising." We all laughed. The truth can be funny.

Truth is, when we say we are Christians, disciples of Jesus, when we say we believe in Christ and follow Him, we probably don't know exactly what we are in for. The first disciples didn't have a clear idea, as we hear about once again in this Sunday's gospel passage from Mark (10:35-45).

To follow Jesus means to live differently, to live by a set of values different from the world's. Listen to Jesus:

"You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you."

It won't be that way among you. Jesus is pretty emphatic here. His disciples will live differently. They will be servants; after all, Jesus himself came into our world not to be served, but to serve.

Jesus is saying, I think, there is another way of doing things. But when we Christians don't live any differently, when our leaders don't lead any differently, when Christian business persons don't do business any differently ... Christian lawyers, politicians, educators, bankers, nurses, teammates, parents, siblings ... you name it ... if we don't live any differently than those who do not believe, then, how can we say we honestly follow Jesus?

Of course, none of us are perfect — least of all me. But the Gospels we have heard recently should really get all of us thinking about the sincerity and depth of our discipleship.

Peace!

WEEK 1 "GETTING READY"

Small Groups Discussion Questions:

- Who is or was the most humble person you have known – what did his or her humility teach you?
- Has it rubbed off on you?
- Have you ever worked or served with someone who was led by the power of service and example of commitment?
- When have you found it most difficult to heed the words of Jesus "it shall not be so among you?"
- Have you ever had to confront another's ambition or arrogance, similar to the attitude of James and John in today's gospel?

40 DAYS FOR LIFE™

Now through November 4th

Lauren left her home in Pennsville this morning with every intention of aborting her 6 week old fetus. She already has one child with Down's Syndrome and this seemed like the best choice. When she arrived at the Cherry Hill Women's Center 45 minutes later she saw someone praying outside.

Lauren went inside the facility and she was given an ultrasound because the abortionist needed to know what procedure to do and how much money to charge. Lauren asked to see the ultrasound. It was then that she got up and left the Cherry Hill Women's Center.

Lauren spoke with me when she was waiting for her ride home. She said she changed her mind and told me her story. She showed me the "picture" she got. I asked if she needed help, but she said no. She said, "Thank you for being here. It really made me think".

I had just gotten there about 10 minutes before. It wasn't me who made her think. The point is that somebody was there being Christ's Hands and Feet. And because that person was there a baby who was scheduled to die today will live. He might live 80 or more years – only God knows.

Your peaceful presence can make all the difference in the world to a baby and to his/her mother, father, siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. It can make all the difference to their future spouse and children or to others that may help during their time here on earth. God has given this baby gifts and talents which he or she will now be able to develop and share.

YOU can make a difference. Please go out. ... Be present ... sign up to pray for one hour at www.40daysforlife.com/cherryhill. People from St. Joans, Holy Eucharist and St. Mary of the Lakes will be praying outside the Cherry Hill Womens' Center all the remaining Tuesdays of October from 10 – 11am. Claire Howson www.helpersnj.org 856-313-9861

Now that the weather is getting cooler, the Prayer Shawl Ministry would like to remind you that there are shawls and blankets in the rectory for you or someone you know going through a difficult time with an illness or a loss of a loved one. There is no charge but donations are appreciated.

The ministry also makes blankets and baby blankets/ hats and winter scarves/ hats and donates them to five organizations including the ICU at the Marlton hospital, the N.I.C.U. at the Voorhees, Good Council in Riverside, Options for Women and Lily's Hope.

If you have any yarn or spools of narrow ribbon that you are no longer using, please consider donating them. Be assured that they will be put to good use. Just drop them off at the rectory at your convenience. For more information, call Rita Smith at 856-983-2809 or email robertsmith62@verizon.net.
