EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

Tuesday evening's
Eucharistic Adoration 5:00pm – 6:30pm
Benediction 6:30pm

Let Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is he who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: he is God with us. Seek him without tiring, welcome him without reserve, love him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever.

~ Pope John Paul II

Bountiful Grace

Jesus said to his disciples:
 "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.
 "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.
 "Learn a lesson from the fig tree.
 When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
 "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

If you google the definition of Eucharist you will see that it comes from a Greek word. In fact, within the word Eucharist is another Greek word, kharis, which means "grace." Eucharist means to give thanks for grace.

How wonderful that as Catholic Christians, our primary act of worship is to give thanks to God! Hopefully every time we celebrate Mass — Eucharist — we become more aware of the many blessings God has graced us with. Each Eucharist hopes to grow a grateful heart.

As a nation, this Thursday we will devote a day to giving thanks. It is a day of family, friendship and community. What better way to begin this special day than by joining together as a parish family around the altar to give thanks to God. Our beautiful Thanksgiving Day Mass is 9am.

I also invite you to join together with other local congregations of faith on Wednesday night, 7pm, for our Marlton Community Thanksgiving Service. This year we will gather at Beth Tikvah Synagogue on Evesboro-Medford road.

Thanksgiving brings people together. Many college students will be home, as well as visiting relatives and friends. Please invite them to join you for Mass on Thanksgiving Day as well as next weekend.

Let's keep in prayer the many folks in California, Florida, and the Carolinas whose Thanksgiving will be markedly different because of recent fires and storms.

On behalf of all the Sisters, Deacons, Priests and entire Staff of St. Joan of Arc, I wish everyone a peaceful, meaningful Thanksgiving.

With love,

WEEK 5 "Keeping Watch - Are You?"

Small Groups Discussion Questions:

- What signs around you remind you of the brevity of life and the preciousness of time?
- What "heaven" and "earth" do you sense passing away in your life?
- Have you known an angel in your life who has "gathered" you to God?
- In this time of year – what does it teach us about death and resurrection?

MAKING A CASE FOR GOD!

November 26th
7:30pm Pedata Hall

Presented by Sr. Julie Fertsch

In the Divine Milieu, Teilhard de Chardin wrote, "God is as pervasive and perceptible as the atmosphere in which we are bathed. What prevents you from enfolding God in your arms? Only one thing – your inability to see." Come for an evening of reflection, prayer, sharing, and fun as we learn to see anew the many ways that God is at work in our lives. Without a doubt, you will leave with a more profound awareness of and insight into a loving God who shows up in every one of our life's pictures and who never leaves us alone. Join us in Pedata Hall on November 26th at 7:30PM. Sr. Julie Fertsch will be our presenter as we ponder our doubts and questions as to whether or not, God Does Exist.

Julie Fertsch, SSJ, a Sister of St. Joseph, is currently working with the St. Joseph Worker Program. She holds a Master's Degree in Theology from St.

Michael's College and has experience in education, foreign mission work, counseling/social work, retreat work, and spiritual direction. Sister Julie loves people! She sees and believes in the great potential of all!

CHRISTMAS AT THE KOVE

NOVEMBER 24TH

The Helpers of God's Precious Infants, NJ is holding their second annual fundraiser "Christmas at The Kove" on Saturday, November 24th. The owners of The Kove (20 West Atlantic Avenue, Audubon, NJ) are graciously gifting Helpers NJ with a percentage of food and beverage purchases that evening. 3 talented performers, including a Frank Sinatra sound alike, will donate their talents for a FREE concert for diners. We know you will enjoy the evening and at the same time you will assist Helpers to continue to provide support services to pregnant women and their families in order to ease their life burdens and give them hope. Dinner parties of 6 or more may reserve a table by calling 856-546-0800.

JOIN THE AARP TAX PREPARATION TEAM

Each year, AARP volunteers offer free assistance to low and middle-income taxpayers in the preparation of their federal and state income tax returns. There are 10 sites located around Burlington County, including the Evesham public library. Sites are open from Feb. 1st until Apr. 15th. Clients and volunteers do not have to be members of AARP or a senior to participate in this program. We need volunteers willing to work as Tax Return Preparers & Client Greeters. All returns are done on computers & electronically filed. AARP provides laptops & training. New Tax Return Preparers receive 2 days training in December, another 2 days training in January & ample resources for tax return preparation. If you are interested in joining this fun volunteer activity, please call Linda Bennett at 609-877-2412 or Ron Cary at 856-983-2431.
