EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENECTION

Tuesday evening's Eucharistic
Adoration
5:00pm – 6:30pm
Benediction 6:30pm

Advent Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron The great liturgical season of vigilance, of waiting and watching.

"As you keep vigil before the Blessed Sacrament, bring to Christ some problem or dilemma that you have been fretting over, and then say: "Lord, I'm waiting for you to solve this, to show me the way out, the way forward.
I've been running, planning, worrying, but now I'm going to let you work." Then, throughout Advent, watch attentively for signs.

Also, when you pray before the Eucharist, allow your desire for the things of God to intensify; allow your heart and soul to expand. Pray, "Lord, make me ready to receive the gifts you want to give," or even, "Lord Jesus, surprise me.""

GOSPEL LUKE 1:39-45

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

ADVENT FOUR/2018

Believe. Again.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Mary moves "in haste" to visit her cousin Elizabeth. Many of us are moving hastily (perhaps even frantically) to finish up last minute preparations — shopping, cooking, wrapping, that sort of thing.

The baby in Elizabeth's womb "leaps for joy" upon hearing the greeting of Mary. Little kids everywhere are jumping up and down with excitement and anticipation as we count down the last hours until Christmas morning.

In all of the activity of the Gospel, Elizabeth recognizes the sacredness of the moment: "Blessed is the fruit of your womb," she says to Mary. Elizabeth knows she is in the presence of the Messiah, Jesus. She says to Mary: "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

May these last two days of Advent remind us that Christmas is, most especially, a feast of faith! Christmas is about believing in God, believing in God's presence among us (Emmanuel!), believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Messiah, the Savior of the world, believing that God's promises will be fulfilled.

The Christmas story begins with a young girl, Mary, believing, trusting in God's presence and promise. The Christmas story continues with our faith in that same God. The Christmas story continues today with our trust in the presence and promise of God.

In the midst of our haste and hurry, in the midst of great anticipation and excitement, let us take some time to pause and believe in something so much bigger than all of us: Emmanuel! God with us!

Peace!

"How Did an Active Faith Life Begin for You?" Small Groups Discussion Questions:

Just as in the birth of Jesus, the Holy Spirit is active in our own time. How do you experience the Holy Spirit working in your life?

John the Baptist first prophesies to Jesus' presence by leaping for joy in Elizabeth's womb..... In this season of Advent and Christmas does your joy point to the risen Lord? How?

Mary and Elizabeth share each other's joy and offer strength to one another in their pregnancies. In our spiritual life we need companions who can point out where God is working in our lives?

Other times we are called to be the one who bears witness to Christ's presence in another. How might we cultivate these spiritual friendships?

To be consecrated is to be set apart for a holy purpose. How do our lives give testimony to being consecrated?

Emmanuel:

God's Greatest Gift

Christmas is all about gift-giving. Why is this? Because at Christmas we celebrate God's greatest gift to us — the baby Jesus! God's greatest gift is the gift of Himself, His presence here within each one of us.

The greatest gift we can give to our children is the gift of faith in Jesus Christ.

The greatest gift we can give to one another is our unconditional love.

The greatest gift we can give to God is our service to those in need, to the poor, the forgotten, the lonely and the hurting.

ADVENT WEEK FOUR

PRAYER FOR LIGHTING THE 4th ADVENT CANDLE

Members of the household gather around the wreath.

The candle is lit & one person prays aloud:

O Jesus, Emmanuel, God-With-Us, this fourth week will be but two days — may the flame of these Advent candles remind us that time goes by so quickly. May we recognize Your presence among us, here and now, until the great day when we see You face to face. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Together pray a Hail Mary.

A Prayer for Christmas Morning

(before beginning the day, take a moment on your knees, beside your bed, and offer a prayer of thanks to God)

Dear God,

Thank, you God, for your many gifts:
the gift of my life,
my family and friends.
Thank you, God, for your greatest gift,
Jesus Christ, who is our Lord and Savior.

Help me to be a gift of love and joy and peace to everyone I meet on this Christmas Day and throughout the new year to come.

Amen.

*The Priests, Sisters,
Deacons and entire St. Joan of Arc
Staff wish you and your loved ones a Most Merry Christmas and a very Happy, Holy New Year.
May God bless you
now and always!*
