EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

Tuesday evening's Eucharistic
Adoration
5:00pm – 6:30pm
Benediction 6:30pm

Advent Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron The great liturgical season of vigilance, of waiting and watching.

"As you keep vigil before the Blessed Sacrament, bring to Christ some problem or dilemma that you have been fretting over, and then say: "Lord, I'm waiting for you to solve this, to show me the way out, the way forward. I've been running, planning, worrying, but now I'm going to let you work." Then, throughout Advent, watch attentively for signs.

Also, when you pray before the Eucharist, allow your desire for the things of God to intensify; allow your heart and soul to expand. Pray, "Lord, make me ready to receive the gifts you want to give," or even, "Lord Jesus, surprise me."

LOOK ... AND GO ...INSIDE THE MANGER

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

A couple of weeks ago Debbie Galamb in our Religious Education Office showed us a stunningly beautiful photo of her gorgeous granddaughter, Charlotte, inspecting an ornament hanging on her Christmas tree. The picture itself is as enchanting as the look on the little girl's illuminated face as she peeks inside a tiny manger. She is so captivated, so drawn to it, she can't resist: she has to reach inside and touch it. Charlotte becomes part of the scene, part of the Christmas story.

"Put this on the bulletin cover!" I said. You can see it there.

Christmas invites us, too, to look inside this manger. Go with shepherds, kings, drummer boys and little girls into the manger. Look. There is Jesus and Mary and Joseph. Look. There is the hope and peace we are all longing for.

Look and touch. Don't keep at a distance. Don't be just an admirer. Become part of what you see, become part of the story you have heard so many times. Give your heart, this is what worship is. Be touched by what you see, by the gift of pure love.

Christ's love will fill your heart. Christ's love will light up your face. Like Charlotte's.

Christmas Peace to you and yours,

A New Year's Message from the Sisters, Deacons and Priests of St. Joan of Arc

INSIDE THE MANGER ... A FAMILY ...

We look inside the manger and there is Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The Holy Family. Sometimes the "holy" part gives us a reason to forget the "family" part. They are a family. Through trial and difficulty, with prayer and perseverance and great trust in God, Joseph and Mary both say "yes" to God and to each other ... and to the Christ Child they bring into our world.

We are inside that manger too. We are God's family. God's family is big and diverse. Through trial and difficulty, with prayer and perseverance and great trust in God, we too can say "yes" to God, yes to each other. Everyone becomes our sisters and brothers.

When we say "yes" to Jesus' invitation to follow Him, we become part of the family of the Church. We are called to be a holy Church, that is a holy family. Through many trials and difficulties, with prayer and perseverance and great trust in God, let us continue to say "yes" to God and to each other.

This is admittedly not an easy time to be part of the Catholic family. We the sisters, deacons and priests of St. Joan of Arc thank you for staying with the Church, even with your doubts, disappointment and outrage, prompted by what can only be called betrayal and sin. We are a parish family. Like the Holy Family, like Mary and Joseph, through every trial and difficulty, with prayer and perseverance and great trust in God, let us in the new year say even more fervently "yes" to God and to each other as we follow Jesus Christ and continue His work ... to celebrate, proclaim and share God's love with everyone without exception.

May the joy, peace and love of Christmas be with you and your loved ones in the New Year!
Happy New Year!

HAPPY NEW YEAR

SMALL GROUPS

GOSPEL LUKE 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom.

After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers.

When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us?"

Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety."

And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me?"

Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

But they did not understand what he said to them.

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

"Where Do You Spend Your Time?" Small Groups Discussion Questions:

How do you experience your family as a "domestic church"?

Where do you find holy imperfections in your own family?

How does your family support each other in times of stress and sadness?

In the Gospel, Jesus calls the temple "my Father's house". Do you feel at home in your church community?

How do you experience church, as a place of shelter and welcome?

How might you help it grow to be even more of a house of God?

JOURNEY THROUGH GRIEF

Loss of Child
Tuesday, January 15th
7:30pm Arc Room

St. Joan's Bereavement Support Group, Journey Through Grief, meets monthly. This group is for the loss of a child. We welcome parents and family members to come and be with other bereaved parents who share our pain. At this meeting we will share about our grief and the holidays. This holiday season can be especially difficult when we have experienced the loss of a child. Let us come together in caring and understanding to support and comfort one another through this holiday season. For further information or questions call Dolores, 856-905-1728 or Joanne at 856-983-5523.

ONE IN THE SPIRIT

LGBTQ Prayer Group
Thursday January 17th

7:30pm Rectory Arc Room
(following our 7pm Mass)

Our St. Joan of Arc Prayer Group ("One in the Spirit") would like to invite our LGBTQ friends and their loved ones to come join us for a time of prayer and faith sharing.

This Prayer group is not an advocacy or political action group. In a spirit of mutual trust and respect for our LGBTQ sisters & brothers and for Church Teaching, we hope to offer a welcoming experience for everyone to deepen their relationship with our loving God. We meet every 3rd Thursday of the month at the same time & place. At each gathering we will Pray, read the Scriptures and share our Faith together – always asking the Holy Spirit to guide our journey. All are Welcome! If you have time, please come join us for our 7pm Mass before coming to our prayer meeting. There's no better way to come together as Children of God! To learn more about this new ministry please visit:

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

In Honor of Fr. Rich

Monday, January 21st 1pm Pedata Hall

The Knights of Columbus Council 6530 is sponsoring a Martin Luther King Day Blood Drive Monday, Jan. 21st. Father Rich has challenged the Knights & parish to collect a minimum of at least 60 units of blood on this important day of service. The time will be from 1pm till 6pm in Pedata Hall. One pint of blood donated can help to save up to 3 lives. The donation is painless and lasts about one hour. Walk ins are always welcome but it is strongly suggested that you schedule an appointment at the Red Cross website: www.redcrossblood.org or call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE. All presenting donors will receive a coupon for a free coffee & donut from Dunkin Donuts. Pizza will be served during the drive compliments of Dominos Pizza. If you have any questions about the blood drive please feel free to call Dean DeRose at 856-596-6404 or email roseman1957@comcast.net.

THANKS FROM THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

New Lisbon

Due to your generosity, we were able to hold another great Christmas party for our friends at the New Lisbon Center for intellectually disabled adults. We had 38 guests who enjoyed an afternoon of food, fun, dancing and a visit from Santa. We were also able to make a donation to help improve their daily lives at their home in New Lisbon. The pure joy on the faces of these special people is amazing. Your support and prayers make it possible for us to continue this great tradition.
