BAPTISMS

We celebrate Baptisms most Sunday afternoons at 1:30pm.
The baptism of your child is a great time to renew your own faith in Jesus Christ. Call the Office to schedule 856-983-0077

WEDDINGS and BLESSING OF CIVIL MARRIAGES

Congratulations on your engagement! We are happy you have chosen to have a Church wedding! Please call the Office as soon as possible to schedule a date and to begin Marriage Preparation. Before planning a destination wedding, please call the Church to discuss ways in which you can have your marriage blessed in the Church. 856-983-0077.

HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.
Please call 856-983-0077.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENECTION

Tuesday evening's Eucharistic Adoration
5:00pm – 6:30pm
Benediction 6:30pm

The Sacred Host embodies the Divine Tenderness of the Incarnation. So gentle and humble, so loving and small and vulnerable, the Blessed Sacrament is Jesus saying "Come to Me... for I am gentle and humble of Heart".
(Mt. 11:30).

~ Excerpts from Letters To A Brother Priest

New Rectory Update

As you can see, in spite of a lot of rain, progress is being made on the new clergy residence on Evans Road next to the convent. We are hopeful for a spring finish which will enable us to begin transforming the entire current rectory on Willow Bend Road into a parish center which holds offices and additional meeting rooms.

FAKE EMAIL FROM YOUR PASTOR

...Last week many parishioners received a "counterfeit" email supposedly from Fr. Rich requesting gift cards be sent to him. We have called in the police to investigate what looks initially to be part of a nationwide scam. Fortunately, no one that we know of followed through. If you ever receive an email from our staff that you question, please do not hesitate to call the parish office. We are grateful for the many parishioners who did just that in this case, alerting us immediately to this scam.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING

Saturday, January 26th 9:45am

SJA Parish Council will be holding a meeting in Arc Room

Saturday, January 26th at 9:45 a.m.

All are welcome to attend

BAPTISM OF OUR LORD/2019

You Are Who God Says You Are

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We close the Church's Christmas Season with a feast that remembers and celebrates the baptism of Jesus. Let's be clear: Jesus wasn't baptized for the forgiveness of his sins (he didn't have any to be forgiven), as we are. He didn't need original sin to be washed away, as we do. Instead, Jesus' baptism, as I recently read, "revealed his true nature as God's beloved Son."

In this way, our baptisms are similar to Jesus'.

Of course, Jesus is God's only begotten Son, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, consubstantial with the Father. The Nicene Creed makes it clear that Jesus Christ is unique.

Nonetheless, in our baptism we are reborn as sons and daughters of God. We are joined to Christ. We too are God's sons and daughters. Baptism reveals our true nature. We are claimed for Christ. We are joined to Him.

We've gotten used to calling God our Father. But we might not be so used to hearing God call us "daughter" or "son." That is what we are by virtue of baptism. Think about that for a moment. Bring that to prayer this week. Let it soak in. The next time you come down hard on yourself; the next time you belittle yourself (or another), the next time you doubt your life has purpose of meaning, remember this: you belong to God.

Peace!

"Baptism is ...

... the basis of the whole Christian life ...

... the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism ...

... we are freed from sin and reborn as children of God ...

... we become members of Christ ...

... we are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission."

If your children have not been baptized, no matter their age, give us a call at the Parish Office. Our priests, deacons and staff would love the opportunity to talk with you, answer any questions you might have about this Sacrament. Likewise, too, if you yourself have not been baptized; we would love to get together to talk about the Sacrament and its potential meaning in your life.

SMALL GROUPS

GOSPEL LUKE 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.

I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals.

He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

Discussion Questions:

What do you remember or what have you been told about the day you were baptized?

This is the last day of the Christmas season.

What has been most meaningful for you this Christmas?

What traditions would you like to continue?

What would you like to do differently?

In Luke's gospel we often see Jesus in prayer.

How would you like to enrich your own prayer life this year?

Is it easy for you to think that you are God's beloved? Why do you think this?

How do you welcome those of different backgrounds into your home, or parish?

WWP Connect Coffee Talk: Your Heart —You are Captivating

In this world of noise and busyness, it is hard for women to find the time to give ourselves a little attention. Please join us for a talk and discussion to remind us of how precious we are to God and that His love is unconditional. He is captivated by each one of us - not because of what we do or what others think of us but simply because we are His precious daughters. No experience necessary, just come as you are for some coffee and a chance to see what Walking with Purpose is all about!

Thank You

FROM KENOSIS PRISON MINISTRY

Dear Parishioners, on behalf of the Kenosis Prison Ministry, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the amazing support you have given us in the past and present with your prayers. As you already know we conducted a four day retreat in Bayside Prison in Leesburg, South Jersey November 1st through the 4th. Your prayers were a great help to the success of that retreat. Thanks again for your prayers. God bless you all.

CAN YOU HELP?

Sister Sharon White, SSJ will be going to Brownsville, TX at the end of January to assist with the plight of so many children fleeing torture, poverty and crime. She is in the process of making wrist bags for them. They will contain a golf pencils, crayons, plastic bag and paper. Your assistance is welcomed in several ways:

- To make the 5"x 7" bags (if you are a sewer). If you do not have material or 20" ribbon for the wrist band it will be provided.
 - Donate a post-it-note tablet or small light weight note book.
- Sister Sharon's goal is to take 1000 light weight bags with her. The bags would need to be made and dropped off at the rectory to Sr. Peg by noon on January 23. Thank you.

MINISTRIES

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION FOR LIFE

Friday, January 18th 12 Noon – 7:00 PM

Rosary - 2pm Divine Mercy - 3pm Benediction - 7pm

This Friday, January 18th (the day of the March for Life in DC) we will have our annual day of Eucharistic Adoration to pray for the safety of the most vulnerable among us.

Whether you can spend a few minutes or an hour, we invite you to come and pray for:

- An end to abortion and all threats to human life.
- The safety and protection of the most vulnerable among us.
- Healing for women and men who are suffering due to abortion, and all forms of violence.
- The safety of the thousands of people who will be in Washington for the Annual March for Life.

We will conclude with Benediction at 7PM

We cannot under-estimate the power of prayer and the difference it will make in our world."

~ Blessed Mother Teresa

JOURNEY THROUGH GRIEF

Loss of Child

Tuesday, January 15th
7:30pm Arc Room

St. Joan's Bereavement Support Group, Journey Through Grief, meets monthly. This group is for the loss of a child. We welcome parents and family members to come and be with other bereaved parents who share our pain. At this meeting we will share about our grief and the holidays. This holiday season can be especially difficult when we have experienced the loss of a child. Let us come together in caring and understanding to support and comfort one another through this holiday season. For further information or questions call Dolores, 856-905-1728 or Joanne at 856-983-5523.

"Blessed are they that mourn,
for they shall be comforted ~ Matthew 5:4
