GOSPEL LUKE 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples:

“To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back.

Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them.

And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same.

If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount.

But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

“Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven.

Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap.

For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME/2019

DO WE HAVE TO?

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

How many times when we were young did we ask, when instructed by parent or teacher to do something rather difficult or unpleasant: “Do I have to?” For me, “do I have to go to the dentist?” was a biggie. So was: “Do I have to eat the lima beans?”

Today’s Gospel may get a similar response from us.

We continue with Luke’s version of Jesus’ great sermon. You could say we are in the tough part. Jesus says: “Love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who mistreat you. Offer the other cheek when struck on the one.”

To each of these we might ask: “Do we have to?”

And I’ve just quoted a few. You can read the whole list in Luke, chapter 6, verses 27-38.

What might Jesus say when we ask, “Do we have to?” I remember my parents and teachers always saying, “Yes, you have to.” When I would say, “Why?” They would say, “It’s good for you.”

Would Jesus say the same thing?

Peace!

“Love is the Measure - How are you Measuring Up”

Small Groups Discussion Questions:

Where in your own life are you being called to choose peace and mercy over bitterness and revenge?

How might we as individuals, and as a parish, conform ourselves more perfectly to the image of Christ, the one who loves without counting the cost?

How do you, your family and parish follow Jesus’ command to “bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you?”

When and how have you experienced in your own life generosity begetting abundance?

Thank You

Our family would like to thank all the clergy, parishioners and friends who attended our son and brother Brian's viewing and Mass on February 7th. It was a very moving experience for us seeing so many people honoring the life of Brian. We are sure that he was looking down on all of us and saying what a great gathering. Thanks again for all who attended and gave the many Mass cards and flowers.
