To Leave And Yet To Stay
Mother Angelica

GOSPEL LUKE 9:28B-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem.

Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud.

Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT/2019

A View From The Mountain

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have been a priest for over thirty years (I know I don't look that old) and I must tell you that last week's Mission was one of the best I've experienced. I know I am not the only one who thinks that. Nearly 500 people attended each night. I want to thank Fr. Fragomeni for sharing his joy and faith and insights with us. He has gotten us off to a great start this Lent.

This past week's Mission was a hint of what the disciples experienced when Jesus took them up the mountain and they witnessed His transfiguration. They began to see Jesus in a new light. It was a transformative moment for them. Fr. Fragomeni helped us to see the mercy of God in a new light. This is what Lent wants to do as we prepare for Easter.

Thank you to Mary Bernard and all the members of our Adult Faith Enrichment Team who helped to plan our Mission. Thank you to all who helped: greeters, readers, Sr. Stephanie, cantors, and most especially those who shared their personal stories with us.

This is only the second Sunday in these 40 days. We've got a long way to go. The Lord will continue to work on us in our Small Groups, in our prayer, the Stations of the Cross, in our fasting and good deeds, in every Sunday Eucharist. Our transformation has just begun ... but what a great beginning it's been!

Good Lent!

F. R. L.

"Seeing in a New Way - Rediscovering Your Heart"

Small Groups Discussion Questions:

- 1- Have there been times in your life when you have chosen to see things as Christ sees – forgiving even though it was difficult? What did that do for the other person, and what did it do for you?
- 2- What is even one occasion in your life, that if you would chose to see and act in a new way, forgiving another could bring in the light of Christ? Would you be willing to move in that direction?
- 3- What about forgiving yourself for something gone wrong?
- 4- Why do the apostles always seem to be asleep at key times? What does that have to say about us when it is time to see things differently?
- 5- Have you ever seen people transfigured – made a change in their lives because of their faith?

“This is My Chosen Son”

For the second time in the Gospel of Luke the voice of God claims Jesus as God’s son.

The first moment was at his baptism when “the holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form” (Luke 3:22 — we actually heard this story not so long ago on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 13th). At that time the voice of God proclaimed, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

At the Jordan River the voice from heaven speaks directly to Jesus, but on the mountain where Jesus goes to pray with his closest companions the voice addresses those around Jesus — Peter, James and John — telling them: “This is my chosen Son, listen to him.”

These words are addressed to us when we encounter our Lord in the Word and the Eucharist, “Behold, here is Jesus, the chosen one, listen to him.”

(from Living Liturgy, by Schmisek, Rice and Macaalintal)

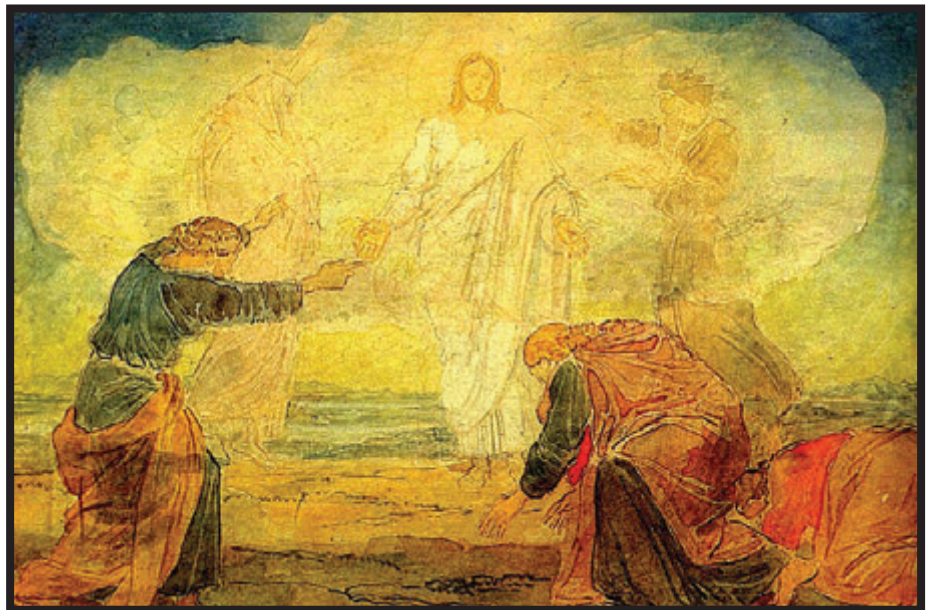

Before his Transfiguration occurs, we are told in Luke’s Gospel that Jesus takes the three disciples — Peter, James and John — “up the mountain to pray.”

In your experience, how is prayer like going up “the mountain?”

In what ways does prayer transform you?”

How are you making prayer a priority this Lent?

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY

& SUMMER KIDS MEAL PROGRAMS

March 18th at 7:30pm in Pedata Hall, our friends from Prince of Peace Lutheran Church (POP) will speak to us about 2 great opportunities to provide support to those in need within our community: "Interfaith Hospitality" and "Summer Kids Meal" programs.

Interfaith Hospitality is a faith-based service organization working with local churches to provide temporary lodging, meals and socializing for selected homeless families in transition towards a permanent living situation. Our opportunity is to provide volunteers at the POP campus a few times during the year as:

Cooks – preparing & delivering dinners for 1 to 3 small families

Social Hosts – socializing with families during & after dinner

Overnight Hosts – staying with families overnight at POP Church

Supply Providers – donating small supplies as requested

Summer Kids Meal is a program at POP providing take-home meals for children not receiving these necessities when school is out in summer. We can volunteer as:

Packers - to combine meal items into take-home packages

Servers - to give take-home packages to families coming for help

Donors – to provide funds towards purchasing needed meal items

Please join us for these great opportunities to work with our sisters & brothers at Prince of Peace Church by serving new friends who need our compassion and support. This is living out the mission Jesus offers us in the 25th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel. To learn more about these new service opportunities please contact Deacon Tom at 856-983-0077 ext.306 or tom.murphy@stjoans.org.

MALL WALK TO FIGHT HUNGER

Sunday, April 7th Voorhees Town Center

St. Joan of Arc Church is one of fifteen area churches that support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry by providing workers, food donations and a monetary donation. The Pantry in return provides for people in need from Marlton, Mt. Laurel, Haddonfield and Cherry Hill. They require funds to keep the pantry up and running and buy additional food when donations are low.

Our 2019 "Mall Walk to Fight Hunger!" fundraiser will be held on Sunday April 7 at the Voorhees Town Center (Echelon Mall). Entertainment and Registration start at 1:00. The Walk begins at 2:00.

All proceeds go toward funding our food pantry. We distributed 430,000 pounds of food last year and we need your help to continue our mission to fight hunger. You can register online as an individual or a team member at www.cherryhillfoodpantry.com or on the day of the walk. Each participant or team member is asked to get as many sponsors as possible. Sponsors can go online and contribute or give a donation to their participant. It is a fun day with a comedian, musical entertainment, face painting, balloon animals and more! All families and people of all ages are encouraged to participate.

ONE IN THE SPIRIT

Thursday March 21st 7:40pm
Arc Room

Thursday March 21st at 7:40pm in the Rectory's Arc Room (following our 7pm Mass), our St. Joan of Arc Prayer Group ("One in the Spirit") would like to invite our LGBTQ friends and their loved ones to join us for a time of prayer and faith sharing. This Prayer group is not an advocacy or political action group. In a spirit of mutual trust and respect for our LGBTQ sisters & brothers and for Church Teaching, we hope to offer a welcoming experience for everyone to deepen their relationship with our loving God.

We meet every 3rd Thursday of the month at the same time & place. We Pray, read the Scriptures and share our Faith together – always asking the Holy Spirit to guide us. All are Welcome! If you can, please join us for our 7pm Mass before coming to our prayer meeting. It's a great way to come together as Children of God!

POPCORN FRANKS & A MOVIE

Thursday March 21st 7:30pm
Pedata Hall
"Same Kind of Different As Me"

From the New York Times bestseller comes an inspirational true story that "embraces the beauty of the human spirit." Successful art dealer Ron Hall (Greg Kinnear) and his wife Debbie (Renee Zellweger) seemingly have the perfect life. But when their faith and family are tested, an unlikely bond with a homeless drifter (Djimon Hounsou) leads them on a remarkable journey that forges an everlasting friendship. Hailed by critics as "powerful and inspiring," Same Kind of Different As Me shows how a simple act of kindness can change everything. Plan to be fed not just with food!

The warm and caring atmosphere will enable us to share our thoughts, feelings and our pain. We welcome parents and family members. Let us support and comfort each other. We will meet in the Arc Room of the rectory on Tuesday, March 19th at 7:30pm. For further information or questions call Dolores at 856-905-1728 or Joanne at 856-983-5523 "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

WOMEN OF FAITH April 8th

Patiently Waiting for our Risen Lord

The Women of Faith Ministry will continue our reflections on the Fruits of the Holy Spirit on Monday, April 8, at 6:45 p.m. in Pedata Hall, when parishioner Joanne DeRose will discuss the Fruit of Patience. Joanne is an original member of the Women of Faith, and she formerly served as president of St. Joan's Parish Council.

We are grateful to have so many wonderful women join us for one meeting or many gatherings during the year. We would love for you to spend Monday night with us and come away refreshed and ready for a blessed Holy Week and a joyful Easter Sunday.

Our meetings begin with fellowship and light refreshments at 6:45 p.m., so that our speakers can begin promptly at 7 p.m. and our meetings can conclude right at 8:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend, and anyone interested will also be able register for our Fellowship Event, which will be held on Monday, May 6, at Allora.

If you would like to receive notice through email of future meetings, please feel free to fill out our registration form, which can be found in the church lobby or on the parish website under "Women of Faith."

Please contact Kathy Burns at (609) 923-7222 or kathleensburns@aol.com for more information.
