Eucharistic Adoration
5:00pm – 6:30pm

other perfectly and love each other deeply.

To Leave And Yet To Stay
Mother Angelica

GOSPEL LUKE 13:1-9

Some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices. Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did! Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!"

And he told them this parable: "There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?' He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down.'"

"The Sin of Not Forgiving - Self Imprisonment"

Small Group

Discussion Questions:

- 1- Have you experienced God's forgiveness in your life? How has that changed you?
- 2- How does your family forgive among themselves?
- 3- What situations in your life are just met with grumbling and no action toward forgiving? How might this be handled in another way?
- 4- How might you be an example and encourage forgiveness in all parts of your life – family, work, parish, etc.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT/2019

A TREE AMONG TREES

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

It's a small point, I'll admit, and may not even be pertinent to the bigger point this Sunday's Gospel passage wants to make. But it struck me as important, nonetheless, that the fig tree in Jesus' parable is in an orchard.

The parable in question is often called "The Barren Fig Tree" and is found in Luke, chapter 13, verses 6-8. I read about this parable in a wonderful new commentary on Luke's Gospel by Rev. Pablo T. Gadenz (who happens to be a priest of the Diocese of Trenton — how cool is that!). Fr. Gadenz makes this point: "The tree is planted in an orchard — that is, a 'vineyard', a common image for Israel in the Old Testament..."

I always had in my head the image of a sad lonely fig tree all alone in the middle of nowhere. But this tree is in an orchard, a vineyard.

When we feel barren, lifeless, hopeless, depleted of joy or weary from life's difficulties and struggles (interior and exterior), it is important to remember we are not alone: we are planted in a garden, an orchard called the Church, the Community of Faith. God nurtures and cultivates and revives us within a community, a family of believers. Our fertilizer is the Sacramental life of the Church and the Scriptures, and also the wisdom of the Saints. Small faith sharing groups also act as fertilizer, as well as support groups, retreats, spiritual direction.

Jesus calls us to repent, to turn to Him and His great mercy and love. We do this not alone. We have much support. There is great comfort in this and much hope!

Good Lent!

LOOKING FOR A FEW STRONG MEN

We need four to eight young men, 18-39, to help carry the altar out of the church, on Holy Thursday, after the Mass of the Lord's Supper and then back into the Church at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. 2019 LENT

Lenten Psalm of Awakening

Come, O Life giving Creator, and rattle the door-latch of my slumbering heart. Awaken me as you breathe upon a winter-wrapped earth, gently calling to life virgin Spring. Awaken in these fortified days of Lenten prayer and discipline my youthful dream of holiness. Call me forth from the prison camp of my numerous past defeats and my narrow patterns of being to make my ordinary life extra-ordinarily alive, through the passion of my love. Show to me during these Lenten days how to take the daily things of life and by submerging them in the sacred, to infuse them with a great love for you, O God, and for others. Guide me to perform simple acts of love and prayer, the real works of reform and renewal of this overture to the spring of the Spirit. O Father of Jesus, help me not to waste these precious Lenten days of my soul's spiritual springtime.

(Fr. Edwards Hays)

If you are what you should be,
you will set the world on fire.

The Pantry in return provides for people in need from Marlton, Mt. Laurel, Haddonfield and Cherry Hill. They require funds to keep the pantry up and running and buy additional food when donations are low.

Our 2019 "Mall Walk to Fight Hunger!" fundraiser will be held on Sunday April 7 at the Voorhees Town Center (Echelon Mall). Entertainment and Registration start at 1:00. The Walk begins at 2:00.

All proceeds go toward funding our food pantry. We distributed 430,000 pounds of food last year and we need your help to continue our mission to fight hunger. You can register online as an individual or a team member at www.cherryhillfoodpantry.com or on the day of the walk. Each participant or team member is asked to get as many sponsors as possible. Sponsors can go online and contribute or give a donation to their participant. It is a fun day with a comedian, musical entertainment, face painting, balloon animals and more! All families and people of all ages are encouraged to participate.

For more information, call Rich at 856-546-9133 or email RichardBurke86@gmail.com or Mary Lynn Williams, mlwilliams@live.com.
