YOUR HELP IS NEEDED AND APPRECIATED ...

A word of deep gratitude to all who donated last year to the ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL run by the Diocese of Trenton. 626 donors raised $112,141.00, surpassing our goal of $111,000! This marks our highest number of donors ever — a 20% increase over the year before. Last week we received a rebate check from the Diocese in the amount of $22,714. Again, thank you so very much!

In this week's bulletin we have inserted a donation card for this year's Appeal. Your gift helps the Diocese continue its important work in serving the poor and needy, seminarian education, care for retired clergy, youth ministry, as well as religious education & evangelization. You can read more about the programs supported by the Appeal on the Diocesan website: www.dioceseoftrenton.org/catholicappeal. Check out a video on our website: www.stjoans.org.

None of the Appeal monies will be used for the Victims Compensation Fund recently established by the Bishops of New Jersey to help those abused by clergy or other Church personnel.

As in the past, I won't ask you to make this important decision in a few minutes while sitting in the pew on Sunday. Instead, I ask that you prayerfully, carefully discern if and how you might be able to give to this year's Appeal. Please give serious thought to the fact that we are not an isolated community. St. Joan of Arc is part of a community of communities called the Diocese of Trenton. Priests who have served here have been educated by Appeal money. Lay people who work in ministries here have been trained by Appeal money.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you!
Fr. Rich

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT/2019 PARABLE PAR EXCELLENCE

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

A parable is a short story with a big message ... about God and God's Kingdom. The parable we hear today, the Prodigal Son, Luke 15:11-32, is arguably the most famous of all the stories Jesus told (along with the Good Samaritan). This parable is worth a long discussion or two at our dinner tables this week, in our small groups, in the car taking the kids to practice.

The common title — "The Prodigal Son" — highlights the selfishness, sinfulness, and ultimate conversion of the younger son. Some call it the "Parable of the Two Lost Sons." That's certainly appropriate. Also appropriate is "The Merciful Father." Which title do you like best and why? That's something you could discuss this week.

Also: Where do you see yourself in the story?

Jesus doesn't give us an ending. Does the older son join the celebration or not? What do you think?

What does the parable say to you about God?

Read the story a couple of times throughout the week. Let it stay with you. Let it guide you and your conversations this week. Could provide for interesting discussions. Might even change someone's (even our own) understanding of who God is. Might even deepen our own relationship with God ... exactly what a parable is supposed to do.

Good Lent!

GOSPEL LUKE 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them.

After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.'"

So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him.

His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.'

Then the celebration began.

Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean.

The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him.

He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.'

He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

AREA PENANCE SERVICES

Many priests will be available to hear individual confessions on Tuesday, April 2nd at St. Mary of the Lakes and April 16th at the Church of St. Isaac Jogues here in Marlton.

"Accepting Forgiveness ~ Get Well Now" Small Group Discussion Questions:

The father in this story breaks all kinds of traditions, the younger son isn't 'owed' anything, is he? Why is the father looking for the son to come back, every day? Patriarchs don't run especially to delinquent sons. What is Jesus telling them about God's forgiveness?

- 1- Is there a figure in the story of the Prodigal Son that you identify with at this point in your life?
- 2- Is or was there a time when you felt shame or guilt over a situation?
- 3- How might you give these feelings to the Lord? How might you seek reconciliation?
- 4- At this point in our Lenten Journey, how are you living the practice of forgiving?

SPRING CLEAN-UP OF THE PARISH GROUNDS

APRIL 6, 10AM TO 2PM

Spring is here after a hard winter & we need your help.
"GARDENING IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL. IT'S LIKE A PARTNERSHIP WITH GOD"

On April 6, Saturday, from 10am to 2pm there will be a general clean-up of the parish grounds. In case of rain a later date will be published in the bulletin.

We will need 30 to 40 volunteers to help clean up the grounds. There is no heavy landscaping involved, just the removal of dead plants, raking, trimming, general pick up of debris. This is a great way of getting the parents and kids involved in the parish and for young people you need community service hours. We will have signed forms available noting their service. Please bring your own gardening tools.

The grounds always look great after the spring clean-up and makes the fall clean-up easier.

If you are interested in making our parish grounds a work of beauty, please contact coordinators Ken & Betty Mills 856-596-0407 or email at oce1048@aol.com.

MALL WALK TO FIGHT HUNGER

Sunday, April 7th Voorhees Town Center

St. Joan of Arc Church is one of fifteen area churches that support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry by providing workers, food donations and a monetary donation. The Pantry in return provides for people in need from Marlton, Mt. Laurel, Haddonfield and Cherry Hill. They require funds to keep the pantry up and running and buy additional food when donations are low.

Our 2019 "Mall Walk to Fight Hunger!" fundraiser will be held on Sunday April 7 at the Voorhees Town Center (Echelon Mall). Entertainment and Registration start at 1:00. The Walk begins at 2:00.

All proceeds go toward funding our food pantry. We distributed 430,000 pounds of food last year and we need your help to continue our mission to fight hunger. You can register online as an individual or a team member at www.cherryhillfoodpantry.com or on the day of the walk. Each participant or team member is asked to get as many sponsors as possible. Sponsors can go online and contribute or give a donation to their participant. It is a fun day with a comedian, musical entertainment, face painting, balloon animals and more! All families and people of all ages are encouraged to participate.

For more information, call Rich at 856-546-9133 or email RichardBurke86@gmail.com or Mary Lynn Williams, mlwilliams@live.com.
