GOSPEL LUKE 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

- 1) Have you ever met someone who bragged about who they know and what they do? Even if all of it is true, how does that make you feel?
- 2) The radical hospitality of Jesus is being open to "the other." How have you been open to "the other?" Explain as clearly and simply as you can.
- 3) What is the difference? When serving at a soup kitchen what is the difference between working in the kitchen making plates of food and directly serving food to a patron at a table?
- 4) What does humility and hospitality have to do with what Jesus did in this Gospel?

22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NICE WORK AND WE'VE GOT IT

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I know the calendar says there are still a few weeks left of summer, and no doubt we will hit some hot patches, even into October, that feel like summer. But with September comes the notion that we've turned a corner. School revs up again. Daily life goes back to a certain routine. It's time to work again (even if for most people, work never stopped).

Labor Day is a wisely placed holiday.

There's an old song by George and Ira Gershwin called "Nice Work If You Can Get It" (nice lyrics, too: truly worth a trip to Google). The "work" the Gershwins refer to is love. The song speaks specifically of marital love. We know as disciples of Christ, that this is our truest work. It's our most fundamental "job" as people of faith to fill the world with love.

We do this job in our homes, of course. But also in our schools, our places of work, wherever we find ourselves.

It is nice work. It's the best work ... and ... we do have it. We are all employed in this work by God. Christ fills us with His love and equips us with His presence, the Holy Spirit, within us. So, welcome September. Welcome a new season and each new day. We've got a lot of work to do!

Peace!

Fr. Rich

For those not baptized! For Catholics who have not completed their Sacraments! For others interested in joining the Catholic Church!

ONE SMALL STEP, A GIANT LEAP OF FAITH

50 years Neil Armstrong took a small step that turned into a giant leap that changed the world. You can take a small step and a giant leap of faith that will also change your life. Join other adults seeking God. Learn to discover who Jesus Christ is. Learn about the Catholic Church. The program is called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Call today for more information: 856-983-0077.

INTRODUCTION TO THE BIBLE

This is a one night, hands on, step by step guide to the Holy Bible. We will cover such questions as: how is the Bible the Word of God? How was it written? What books make up the Bible? How does the Bible speak to our lives today? And much more.

This presentation is part of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) but we are opening it up to everyone. Please join us.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

There are times when we are moved to respond to God's personal invitation to a deeper relationship and to discover God's presence in all things.. God desires a deeper relationship with you; a desire to grow in intimacy.

Spiritual direction is an experience that enables a person to become more fully aware of God's abiding presence in their life, and live more fully in that relationship.

Individual sessions available at St Joan's Rectory.

If you would like to schedule a session or have questions contact; Deacon Jeff DeFrehn, Certified Spiritual Director-Diocese of Trenton
