EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

Eucharistic Adoration

5:00pm – 6:30pm

Benediction
6:30pm

Let us kneel down before Him in adoring awe, while our Mother teaches us His beauty, sweetness and goodness, and His nearness!

~ Frederick W. Faber C.O.

GOSPEL LUKE 15:1-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them he addressed this parable. "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

"Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it? And when she does find it, she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.' In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Then he said, "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns, who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME TO FORGIVE OR NOT

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I recently read an op-ed piece in which the author asserted there is too much talk of forgiveness in our country.

Well, for one, I'm not sure of the accuracy of this observation. Secondly, and more importantly, could too much forgiveness be a bad thing?

The same author found holding onto resentments a justifiable act. While I think it is always important to name and deal with the wrong, the sin, the hurt another's actions have caused, I have often found holding onto resentments more a hindrance to personal growth and an obstacle to mending a relationship.

Forgiving doesn't whitewash the wrong done. Forgiving is part of the process of reconciliation, healing a broken relationship.

Read the parable of the Prodigal Son once more (Luke 15:11-32). Ask yourself this after reading it: whom would you rather be — the father (who forgave) or the older brother (who held tightly to resentment)? Who had the better chance of moving the relationship with the younger son to a better place?

Finally, consider this: the father in the story forgives his youngest son because he loves him, he wants what is best for him. Whom does the older son love?

Peace!
Fr. Rich

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

"Lost and Found"

Jesus came into this world to save sinners. Is this statement a cornerstone of your faith?

If it is, how does it affect your mission and ministry?

You know the parable of the prodigal son. Which character do you empathize with the most, and why?

What is the message for you today in this parable?

Who is lost in your family or faith community – How is God calling you to seek them?

FALL IN LOVE WITH THE BIBLE

This Wednesday, Fr. Rich is offering a one night, hands on, step by step introduction to the Bible.

When asked what his goal for the presentation is, Fr. Rich said: "I want people to fall in love with the Bible, with reading the Scriptures, the Word of God." This presentation is part of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) but it is open to everyone. Please join us. It would be helpful to bring along a Bible, but not necessary. See you there!

BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

As the new school year begins, let us begin by saying THANK YOU. Thank you, for all the contributions you make to the Box Tops For Education Program. It truly makes a difference to our school. Last year we raised almost $3,000! There is some exciting news to share. You may have noticed a number of your usual General Mills products do not have the traditional box top any longer. Box Tops is transitioning to a completely digital program. You will need to download the Box Tops For Education mobile app and scan your store receipts in order to get credit for SJA. However, until that transition on all products is complete, if you have any traditional box tops that are not expired PLEASE send them in and we'll still get credit as we have in the past. PLEASE feel free to contact Lisa Guirguis at 856-988-1360 or summerbaby24@comcast.net if you would like more information or have any questions. Visit www.BTFE.com and read more details about downloading the app and how you can continue to earn money for SJA.

ONE IN THE SPIRIT

Thursday, September 19th

7:40pm Arc Room

St. Joan of Arc Prayer Group, “One in the Spirit,” would like to invite our LGBTQ friends and their loved ones to join us for a time of prayer and faith sharing. This Prayer group is not an advocacy or political action group. In a spirit of mutual trust and respect for our LGBTQ sisters & brothers and for Church Teaching, we hope to offer a welcoming experience for everyone to deepen their relationship with our loving God. We meet every 3rd Thursday of the month at the same time & place. We Pray, read the Scriptures and share our Faith together – always asking the Holy Spirit to guide us. All are Welcome! If you can, please join us for the 7pm Mass before coming to our prayer meeting. It's a great way to come together as Children of God!
