GOSPEL LUKE 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE LITTLE GUY

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Let's be honest and admit that the parable we hear this Sunday, often called "The Dishonest Steward," ranks up there as one of the most difficult to understand (Luke 16:1-13 — you might want to read it over a couple of more times this week). In the parable, Jesus praises a steward not so much for his dishonesty but for acting prudently.

I want to look at a detail in the story that often gets overlooked and one that, again, quite honestly, I've never looked at before. It's all those debtors in the story. They are the little guys who owe the rich man a lot of money. It may slip our attention, but they get kind of knocked around.

First, the steward is making a lot of money off of them by charging them a lot of interest. That's the way it worked back then. Stewards (similar to tax collectors) got paid from whatever they could tack onto the bill. Basically, the little guy got the shaft.

Next, to save his own skin, and because he doesn't want to lower himself to digging ditches, the steward cuts what the debtors owe. It seems like a good deal. The debtors are now paying a fair price, but once more they are being used as the steward weasels his way into their good graces.

The bottom line is: no one really cares about the interests of the folks below. Jesus, however, does care. We see him siding with the poor all throughout the Gospels, and in Luke's gospel in particular. Today's parable leads into another parable with another rich man and another poor person, this one with a name. But let's not get ahead of ourselves. We get that story next Sunday.

For now, let's remember good stewardship of the gifts God gives us includes looking out not just for ourselves, not just saving our own skins, but using our resources to reach out and care for those who have little more than the skin on their backs.

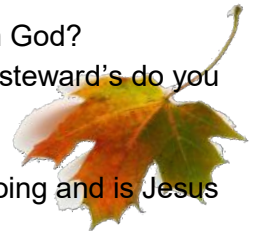

Peace!

Fr. Rich

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

"What Will You Do With What I Have Given You"

- 1) Jesus tells us that a servant can serve only one master. In our culture what other "masters" demand to be served?
- 2) What are the difficulties you experience in the process of keeping yourself focused on God?
- 3) Today's parable of the Dishonest Steward is difficult to interpret. What actions of the steward's do you think Jesus is holding up as a model for each of us?
- 4) Could yours be different than another person's?
- 5) How do we as a family, parish or small group, advocate for the poor? What are we doing and is Jesus always calling for his followers to be doing more?

Are you thinking of becoming Catholic? Growing up as a child, did you miss one of your sacraments?

I did! But, we have a program here at St. Joan's that will give you exactly what you need to finish any sacraments you might have missed. You go thru a program called RCIA ( Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). It begins in September and ends with the Great Easter Vigil in April of the following year. You give us 2 hours every Wednesday night and you will learn all about our Faith taught by our own Father Rich, Father Jorge, Deacons and even the RCIA team members themselves! I was so impressed with the program the year I made my Confirmation, I asked to stay on as one of the team members. I learn more about my Faith each and every year. It's truly a wonderful experience. Come join us! Wednesday evenings 7-9 in Pedata Hall.

MARLTON RESIDENTS NEED OUR HELP!

We have had many requests recently to support our Marlton neighbors financially and our Helping Hands Fund is almost depleted. As you know, any Marlton resident can seek assistance from St. Joan of Arc for their lease/mortgage and utility payments and we do our best to help them from donations we receive to our Helping Hands Fund. If you would like to help your fellow neighbor financially, please send a check to St. Joan of Arc Church and in the memo section please write Helping Hands Fund. Please send the checks to the attention of Theresa Segin at St. Joan of Arc Church, 100 Willow Bend Road, Marlton, NJ 08053. Thank you in advance for your support.

PASTORAL CARE WEEK “Hospitality: Cultivating Space” October 20 - 26

The week of October 20-26 we celebrate all those who are involved in various ministries of Pastoral Care in our parish: Home Bound, Hospitals, Parish Health, Church Transportation, Nursing Homes, Rehab Facilities, Adult Day Care, Bereavement, Rosary Makers, Bread Runners, Good Dog Club, and Shawl Makers. There are over one hundred people in these ministries that touch the parishioners here at St. Joan of Arc through the rich sharing of their love, generosity, time and talents. Their outstanding spirit of care is truly an inspiration and a visible sign of the love of our caring and compassionate God. May God continue to bless them a hundredfold.

On October 22, 2019 at 7:00pm we invite all involved in these ministries to Pedata Hall for a night of prayer, a light meal, fellowship and a time of sharing our ministry experience. RSVP by October 15th if you plan to attend. Rectory (983-0077 x 303) or Peg.Boyle@stjoans.org
