GOSPEL LUKE 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary.

He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

- 1) What do the words "step back and take the long view" mean to you? How do they apply to your faith?
- 2) How do you understand the line in today's gospel – "But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"
- 3) As we await Jesus return, how do you follow Jesus command to pray without becoming weary?
- 4) How well do you follow His command to pray always – in every situation? Is there anything that needs to change?

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FAITH HOPE...PERSISTANCE?

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

St. Paul said, "So, faith, hope and love remain, these three, and the greatest of these is love" (1st Corinthians 13:13). You've probably heard this at a wedding recently. This Sunday, however, our Scriptures speak of faith, hope and persistence.

In Jesus' short parable (Luke 18:1-8) we meet one very persistent (perhaps even annoying) widow. She will not give up. She badgers and bothers a judge into delivering a just decision. Where does her remarkable persistence and stamina come from?

Hope. She is the most hopeful woman we meet in all of Jesus' stories. Her hope for what is right is so strong it drives her into action. Even when it doesn't look like things aren't going her way, she remains hopeful ... and therefore persistent.

Just last Tuesday evening, at our monthly Adult Faith Enrichment presentation (if you don't go to these, you should give them a try), our guest speaker said this: "Hope magnifies the will." Ah. Brilliant. In other words, hope gives us the strength to decide to remain steadfast in the face of adversity and opposition, in the face of disappointment or failure, even in the face of rejection or hurt.

Persistence is born of hope.

And hope — not just optimism — comes from faith. Faith in a God who promises to always be with us is the source of my hope.

If you think about it, how could there be love without hope? How could there be love without persistence?

Persistently yours,
Fr. Rich

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

There are times when we are moved to respond to God's personal invitation to a deeper relationship and to discover God's presence in all things.. God desires a deeper relationship with you; a desire to grow in intimacy.

Spiritual direction is an experience that enables a person to become more fully aware of God's abiding presence in their life, and live more fully in that relationship. Individual sessions available at St Joan's Rectory. If you would like to schedule a session or have questions contact; Deacon Jeff DeFrehn, Certified Spiritual Director-Diocese of Trenton email: Jeff.DeFrehn@stjoans.org or call St Joan's Rectory Office 856-983-0077

The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity
