GOSPEL LUKE 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

- 1) What do you think Jesus was doing by spending time with Zacchaeus?
- 2) What in your life helps you to see Jesus clearly?
- 3) What generally is wealth and its right use?
- 4) How would you answer the question: Do I use money in a way acceptable to Jesus? If not always, what needs to change?
- 5) If Jesus confronted you today, and you needed to make amends for your past "love of money", personally, what would you do?
- 6) How do you think Zacchaeus felt after spending time with Jesus?

BRUSH UP YOUR SACRAMENTS!

There's an old Cole Porter song called "Brush Up Your Shakespeare." For us, it's important every now and then to brush up on what we believe as well as how we pray and worship as Catholic Christians.

Once a month our priests will take an extra minute or two at Sunday Mass to explain a part of our Liturgy. Last week we learned about Gathering and the Greeting. Next month we will explore the Penitential Rite.

In the meantime, Fr. Rich will give a one hour presentation on what we believe about the Sacraments. This is important because the Sacraments are so essential to our Catholic life. Fr. Rich will review what a Sacrament is, how they help us experience God's presence and love, and how they help us live better lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. Everyone is invited. No prior registration or fee.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6th 7:30PM PEDATA HALL

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Have you climbed any trees lately? I certainly haven't but I can remember the days when I did. Growing up we had a tree in our backyard that was perfect for climbing and also for building. There, nestled between its strong branches, we built a tree fort ... that's what we called it and that's what it was. It was definitely not a tree house. Like other forts, this one was used as a defense against the demands and responsibilities of the real world below. In the fort we could hide and dream and read and play (often for hours at a time). We could escape from homework and mowing the lawn or setting the table. We could be kids.

Our Gospel today has a tree and a man in the tree. Zacchaeus is a grown up, an adult. He has a job and adult responsibilities. He has a nice house. He collects taxes for a living (making him not the most popular guy on the block).

When Jesus comes to town, Zacchaeus, like everyone else, wants to see him. He is on the short side. So he climbs a tree. (When the Pope came to Philly I remember seeing people in the trees and they reminded me of this story).

Zacchaeus climbs a tree. Probably something he hadn't done since when he was a kid playing in the backyard. He sees Jesus. Jesus sees him. And that encounter changes his life forever. It brings conversion, a new way of living.

Didn't Jesus once say you had to become like a little child to enter the Kingdom of God?

Zacchaeusly yours,
Fr. Rich

JUST ONE MORE DAY IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT November 12th 7:30PM Pedata Hall

This story is a personal memoir of a mother's journey with her son's twenty-three month courageous battle with a rare form of cancer, DSRCT (Desmoplastic Small Round Cell Tumor). The story, developed from her daily journal, takes us through the ups and downs of being a mother at a very difficult time. In her book, she shares with the readers how faith and prayer carried her family through some very tumultuous days. After walking alongside her son through his battle with cancer, Nanci Rainey, devoted mother of four, focuses her attention on childhood cancer research. Nanci was interviewed on NBC TV, the Catholic Star Herald, and was a guest on Cancer Talk out of Pittsburgh. In 2013 Nanci was named Woman of the Year by the National Association of Professional Women for her dedication to her profession and the achievement of women. Please join us for this inspirational story of a mother's devotion to her son and faith in her God, November 12th, 7:30PM in Pedata Hall.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE:

Wednesday, November 27 (time TBA) Wiley Church on Main Street

Thanksgiving is the perfect time for persons of all faiths to gather together to give thanks to God for our many blessings. This year's service will be held at Wiley Church on Main Street. We hope you will join us.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS:

Thursday, November 28, 9am

Let's fill our church on Thanksgiving Day!

There is no better way to begin this national day of giving thanks than to celebrate the Eucharist!

AN EVENING FOR PRAYER AND REMEMBRANCE

Memorial Service

Tuesday, November 19th

Lite Reception to Follow

The entire community is invited to gather in prayer to remember and pray for those whom we have buried since last November.

Please join your heart to those whose hearts are grieving.

We are better because of them.

November begins and ends with memory and thanksgiving. Set aside time this week to pray for those whom as Church we call Saints, as well as all those little saints we have known who taught us how to believe, to hope and to love.

Beginning with next weekend, please place pictures of your deceased loved ones in our Sanctuary (not just those who died this past year). These pictures will remain there throughout the month of November as a reminder that all the faithfully departed join us in prayer and praise each time we celebrate Mass.

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

All the food collected will be shared with needy families in the Marlton area along with Mt. Carmel Guild in Trenton. Please keep the following in mind:

- If you wish to donate a turkey, please drop it off on Sunday morning, November 24th ONLY. Turkeys should be frozen & in a plastic bag.
- Food drop off dates are the weekend of November 23rd & 24th until 12:00 noon in Pedata Hall.
- We encourage you to buy powdered milk, margarine in squeeze bottles, durable fresh winter vegetables or canned hams. For dessert, please consider cake mixes, canned filling, pie crust, Jell-o, tea bags & coffee.
- We encourage purchasing Grocery Gift Cards which are sold after all Masses or at the rectory during office hours
- If anyone would like to help load the donated food onto the trucks, please be at the Rectory Garage by 12:00 noon on Sunday, November 18th.

PAPER TURKEY DRIVE

The Paper Turkey Drive begins next weekend at all Masses. Our school kids are busy making the paper turkeys. The donation is only $15 for each paper turkey which will be used to purchase the turkeys for the needy here in our town and throughout the diocese coordinated by the Mt. Carmel Guild. Have a Happy & Blessed Thanksgiving!

Thursday, November 5th 7:30pm Pedata Hall

All are welcome to join us on Thursday, November 5th @ 7:30pm in Pedata Hall as we present "Green Book." Academy Award nominee Viggo Mortensen and Academy Award winner Mahershala Ali star in Green Book, a film inspired by a true friendship that transcended race, class, and the 1962 Mason-Dixon line. When Tony Lip (Mortensen), a bouncer from an Italian-American neighborhood in the Bronx, is hired to drive Dr. Don Shirley (Ali), a world-class Black pianist, on a concert tour from Manhattan to the Deep South, they must rely on "The Green Book" to guide them to the few establishments that were then safe for African-Americans. Confronted with racism, danger as well as unexpected humanity and humor - they are forced to set aside differences to survive and thrive on the journey of a lifetime. Come Hungry! Lite refreshments will be served. Plan to be fed not just with food!

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE
