EUCHARISTIC ADORATION & BENEDICTION

"This is the wonderful

~ Pope St. John Paul II

GOSPEL MATTHEW

2:13-15, 19-23

When the magi had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you.

Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled,
Out of Egypt I called my son.

When Herod had died, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go back there. And because he had been warned in a dream, he departed for the region of Galilee. He went and dwelt in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled,
He shall be called a Nazorean.

Small Group Faith Sharing Questions

- 1) In today's gospel, Mary, Joseph and Jesus face extreme peril. What has been the most difficult experience you have encountered as a member of your family?
- 2) St. Paul urges us to let the peace of Christ control your hearts. Where do you find peace in your daily life?
- 3) To let the word of Christ dwell in you richly requires time. How do you make time and space for the words of Jesus to deeply penetrate your heart?

Feast of the Holy Family/2019

NEW YEAR, NEW DECADE, NEW VISION

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

First and again: Merry Christmas! Our Church extends the celebration of Jesus' birth beyond one day. While many folks have already tossed out their Christmas tree, the trees in our Church haven't even been lit for a full week. It's still Christmas! Rejoice! Celebrate! A Savior is born!

This Savior wants to give us a new way to encounter God, a new way to see life, and a new way to live with each other, and a new way to encounter God! All this newness! How lucky for us, then, that we always enter a new year always in the Christmas Season. And how doubly lucky are we that the new year we cross into on Wednesday is called 2020.

How is your vision these days? How do you see God? How does God see us? How do we see each other?

If you need some resolutions today's second reading from St. Paul gives us some nice suggestions:

"Put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience ... Bear with one another ... Forgive one another ... Put on love ... Let the peace of Christ control your heart ... Be thankful ... Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly ... And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus!"

Try doing one or all of them. The only way we can is with a new vision. We need to see each other the way God sees us. That's 20/20 vision.

On behalf of the Sisters of St. Joseph, our Deacons and entire Staff, Fr. Jorge and I would like to wish you and yours a Happy, Healthy and Holy New Year. May 2020 be the year God's vision for the world becomes a reality in every heart, home and nation.

Merry Christmas (again!) and Happy New Year!

Fr. Rich
