HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments. Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience. Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL MATTHEW 5:20-22A 27-28, 33-34A, 37

Jesus said to his disciples: "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

"You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with brother will be liable to judgment.

"You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

A Message from Bishop O'Connell...

During the days and weeks of penance that lie ahead --- from Ash Wednesday, February 26 until Holy Thursday, April 9, 2020 --- the Catholic Church throughout the world commemorates the penitential season of Lent. The model Jesus gave us for "these forty days" was his own experience in the desert and the temptations that followed him there where he encountered Satan face-to-face. And yet, Jesus, there in the desert --- alone, fasting and in intense prayer --- beat back the devil and triumphed over temptation, as strong and as unrelenting as it was throughout those forty days.

We enter the desert of Lent like Jesus, led by the Holy Spirit, to face our devils, our temptations head on. But we are not alone. The Lord Jesus Christ is with us. And so, too, is the Church, the entire community of faith observing Lent. Here is what the Catholic Church in the United States requires of us as baptized Catholics:

The days of FAST (only one full meal) and ABSTINENCE (no meat) are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. No dispensations are granted on these solemn days except for reason of sickness or those provided in canon law below.

All other Fridays of Lent are days of ABSTINENCE (no meat).

Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to FAST (only one full meal) as above. From the age of 14, people are also obliged to ABSTAIN (no meat: this obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat).

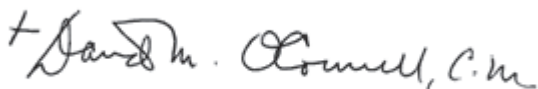

The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence is a serious one for Catholics. Failure to observe one penitential day in itself is not considered a serious sin. It is the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of penitential days, that must be considered serious.

The obligation, the privilege really, of receiving the Eucharist at least once a year --- often called "Easter duty" --- for those in the state of grace should still be fulfilled during the period from the First Sunday of Lent, February 29-March 1 to Trinity Sunday, June 7-8 However, the Church's law does permit this precept to be fulfilled at another time during the year when there is a just cause.

I want to encourage Catholics to go to Confession and to make use of the sacrifices and traditions that have always been part of our Lenten practices in the Church.

We do, indeed, fast and pray with the Lord Jesus and with our fellow Catholics. May this Lent be a time of penance leading to grace and joy for us all at Easter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend David M. O'Connell, C.M.
Bishop of Trenton

Small Groups

A THOUGHT FROM DEACON BARRY

I was thinking the other day that you and I may want to reactivate, you know, rejoin, or even for the first time.... join a small group.

Wouldn't it be great to be able to rely completely on your relationship with God and your Catholic faith.... religion that is. to receive and repent, build a new and sound relationship with other Christians - and God - reduce the amount of time watching TV and instead read the Scriptures - the Bible- in hopes that it will reveal to you and me – allow us to recollect how much God loves us, wants us to rely on Him, and wants us to receive Him. I know I have things to repent. I've always been reluctant. It's like I've been waiting for Jesus to reappear so I can find my way back to my redeemer.

I'm resolved to go on this five-week retreat, become refreshed, and respond to what I hear. I seek a rebirth in spirit and to become restored in Love.

Small Groups are a way for the re-kindling to become... real.

If you are resisting already, God is speaking to you. All you need to do isRespond.

Come join us for a wonderful 5 weeks

– it's called re-Lent.

Small faith-sharing groups meet a very practical human need: the need to belong. In a large parish, there is always the danger of getting "lost in the shuffle." Small Groups put you in touch with people who will help you grow in knowing and loving God, and each other.

We always find life and direction within a community better than we will on our own. Small groups help us realize gifts and talents we didn't know we had, and small groups can help us tell our own story in a way we can learn from it.

And there's nothing like looking around a congregation and seeing people who know you from your Small Group. It's a great feeling.

This year do Lent differently

Come

share the scriptures

seek not only to understand....

.... live fully in the Spirit

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

Is there anything – a word, a phrase or sentence that struck you in these readings?

Below are the Ten Commandments. Is there any one you have had difficulty with? If so, what are you committed to change?

Ten Commandments:

1. am the LORD your God. You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day.
4. Honor your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Is there anyone you need to reconcile with – are you open to make that happen; and will you do that soon?

What is the wisdom the Christian tradition has to offer now to the age we live in?

Presents "Indivisible"

Tuesday, February 18th 7:30pm Pedata Hall
INDIVISIBLE is the extraordinary true story of Army Chaplain Darren Turner and his wife, Heather, whose lives are fully devoted to serving God, family and country. But when war etches deep battle scars - both overseas and on the home front - the Turners' rock-solid marriage is shaken to its core. Carrying burdens, the other can't comprehend, they must decide if they're willing to face one more battle: the fight to save their marriage. From the director of The Grace Card and the studio that brought you Fireproof and War Room comes INDIVISIBLE, the story of one marriage.....one family.....under God.
