GOSPEL MATTHEW 20:1-16A

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

“The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o’clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.’

So they went off.

And he went out again around noon, and around three o’clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o’clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, ‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’

They answered, ‘Because no one has hired us.’

He said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard.’

When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.’

When those who had started about five o’clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, ‘These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day’s burden and the heat.’

He said to one of them in reply, ‘My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?’

Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

(during the time we cannot be present for Mass)

“My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You are already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.”

25th Sunday of Ordinary Time/2020

Got a Gripe?

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Jesus is in story-mode. We hear another parable this Sunday. If some of Jesus’ stories make you a little jumpy or put you on edge ... that’s good! I imagine He wants us a little unsettled; that was probably the point. Jesus is painting a new vision of the Kingdom of God. That vision, His vision, may conflict with ours. His understanding of God and God’s love and mercy, may conflict with ours.

Today’s parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard certainly got me thinking. Jesus says a landowner hires workers at various points of the day to go out and work in the vineyard. At the end of the day he pays them the same wage, even though some worked eight hours and others one. Those who worked all day gripe and complain that they should have received more, or that the other workers should have received less. That is what got me thinking. Do I do that? How much time do I spend griping and complaining? Every minute I do, is a minute I have failed to recognize the great gift of God’s presence. At the end of my life, will I have spent more time griping or giving thanks? Maybe I shouldn’t even wait till the end. Might be good to ask right now: which did I do more last week? Gripe or give thanks?

Peace!

Fr. Rich

QUESTIONS TO SHARE

- 1) How do you feel about God’s justice as it is portrayed in the parable of the laborers in the vineyard?
- 2) Based on the parable - what does it mean to you when Jesus says – that the last will be first?
- 3) St. Paul said: “For me life is Christ, and death is gain.” Do you identify with this statement? Why or why not?
- 4) In your life, when have you needed to call upon the Lord the most fervently?

Please make a personal commitment to pray for an unborn child who may be in danger of being aborted. You are being asked to "spiritually adopt" a baby for the next nine months. You will pray daily for your baby to be carried to term and experience the fullness of life -- a life that the Heavenly Father gave him or her. Name the child for whom you are praying, thereby giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves. The bulletin will provide monthly updates describing your baby's development. Please pray the following prayer daily:

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child I have spiritually adopted who may be in danger of abortion.

WOMEN OF FAITH

September 28th 7:30-8:30pm on Zoom

FINDING GOD WHERE WE ARE

On September 28, our wonderful Women of Faith will reunite, with a new, online format for the familiar reflection and fellowship that has been such a blessing to us over the past decade. We are so excited to be able to present a new program that will draw us back together, while allowing us to be comfortable in our own homes.

For our meetings this year, we will watch The Wild Goose video series, which focuses on the different ways we can encounter the Holy Spirit in our lives. The program is led by Fr. Dave Pivonka, and includes a study guide which will help promote faith sharing and discussion questions. Prior to each meeting, we will provide a link to the specific video and the part of the study guide we will be discussing, so that everyone can watch the video at a convenient time prior to the online meeting. We will also provide a time and Zoom link for our fellowship meeting. We will begin with everyone together online for an opening prayer, then divide into smaller Zoom meetings to have our "table discussions." All are welcome to attend any or all meetings and to enjoy the conversations, whether or not you have time to watch the video that day!

We are so looking forward to seeing everyone again and meeting new friends, and we hope you will come see our new format for yourself. You can contact Kathy Burns at (609) 923-7222 to get more information, to discuss the online format or even to practice a quick Zoom meeting ahead of time! Please come join us!
