Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience. Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL JOHN 3:14-21

As soon as morning came, the chief priests with the elders and the scribes, that is, the whole Sanhedrin held a council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate questioned him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." The chief priests accused him of many things. Again Pilate questioned him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they accuse you of." Jesus gave him no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed.

Now on the occasion of the feast he used to release to them one prisoner whom they requested. A man called Barabbas was then in prison along with the rebels who had committed murder in a rebellion. The crowd came forward and began to ask him to do for them as he was accustomed. Pilate answered, "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?" For he knew that it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed him over. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. Pilate again said to them in reply, "Then what do you want me to do with the man you call the king of the Jews?" They shouted again, "Crucify him." Pilate said to them, "Why? What evil has he done?" They only shouted the louder, "Crucify him." So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to them and, after he had Jesus scourged, handed him over to be crucified.

The soldiers led him away inside the palace, that is, the praetorium, and assembled the whole cohort. They clothed him in purple and, weaving a crown of thorns, placed it on him. They began to salute him with, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and kept striking his head with a reed and spitting upon him. They knelt before him in homage. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak, dressed him in his own clothes, and led him out to crucify him.

They pressed into service a passer-by, Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. They brought him to the place of Golgotha — which is translated Place of the Skull —

They gave him wine drugged with myrrh, but he did not take it. Then they crucified him and divided his garments by casting lots for them to see what each should take. It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. The inscription of the charge against him read, "The King of the Jews." With him they crucified two revolutionaries, one on his right and one on his left. Those passing by reviled him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself by coming down from the cross." Likewise the chief priests, with the scribes, mocked him among themselves and said, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with him also kept abusing him.

At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Some of the bystanders who heard it said, "Look, he is calling Elijah." One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink saying, "Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down." Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he breathed his last he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

Palm Sunday/2021

Holy Week in a Pandemic...Again

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Yup. Holy Week. Pandemic. Again.

Is nothing different?

Well, certainly, we are in a better situation than last year. The pandemic was just ramping up around this time last year. There were no public Masses during Holy Week. There were no palms on Palm Sunday (except the two on our hands — remember that?). This year we have a vaccine, and although not everyone has received it, more and more do every day. This year, too, Masses will have "in-person" congregations — still not as many people as we would like, but certainly much better than the six who attended Easter Mass last year (two priests, an organist and cantor, a camera-person and lector).

So, while it will not be a Holy Week as we love, complete with the fullness of the signs and symbols, it will be different from last year's "Holy Week in a Pandemic."

Something else will be different. You and me.

We have now gone through two pandemic Lents. We better be different for it. Eighty days of prayer, fasting, sacrificing and doing good, during what has been one of the most difficult years many of us have lived through, surely has taught us a few things and helped us to grow as human beings, as children of God, as disciples of Jesus Christ!

So, this Sunday, as we raise our palms — the one from the trees and the ones on our hands — in prayer and praise, let's bring with us to the Cross of Christ all that has changed within us, all that we have learned about ourselves and family and community, all that we have learned about suffering and patience, faith and hope. Let's bring with us, too, all who are hurting and all who have helped them. There is a new Easter to come for each of us and for the whole world!

Peace!

Fr. Rich

Thank You for Your Patience!

We know registering for Mass is difficult and a burden. We look forward to the day when we will not have to do it, especially for the holiest of days. In the meantime, we appreciate so much everyone's continued patience, cooperation and kindness through this unique time! Let's continue to pray for each other that this Holy Week and Easter is a blessed and joyful time for everyone ... whether "in-person" or "online." Thank you!

HOLY WEEK MASS SCHEDULE

Although we will not be able to celebrate Holy Week as we would all like ... it's a big step up from last year when there were only 6 people in Church (a husband and wife, an organist, a cantor, and two priests!)

In order to invite to Church as many as we can while keep things as safe and as sanitized as we can, the schedule (below) looks a little different from previous years, and, of course, could change as circumstances change. Please take a careful look, print or copy or clip this page and keep it.

For safety purposes, we are asking everyone to register for Masses during Holy Week. Church will be limited to 200 persons (this number is subject to change). Registration is open and available on the website at www.stjoans.org.

Don't forget to refresh the page by clicking the refresh arrow  before registering. If you need any assistance in registration please call the parish office at 856.983.0077 or email alyson.baranowski@stjoans.org.

We will livestream a Mass or Service each day (indicated below by *).

Bishop O'Connell has extended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass. To all with serious health issues or are immune-compromised: we kindly ask you to join us in prayer at home via livestream on our website or Facebook page. Thank you.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

(during the time we cannot be present for Mass)

"My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You are already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Important Religious Education News from Fr. Rich

Dear Parents,

As you may know, Mrs. Linda Mueller, our Director of Religious Education is retiring at the beginning of June. Mrs. Mueller had intended to retire last June, but because of COVID-19, she graciously postponed her much deserved retirement. We all owe her a debt of gratitude. Thank you, Mrs. Mueller!

Because this summer will be a time of transition for the Religious Education Office, unfortunately it will not be possible this year to hold our Summer Intensive Program & Vacation Bible School. I know how popular these programs are and promise we will do all we can to bring both back in 2022. I apologize any inconvenience this might cause.

As you can imagine, not knowing exactly what the state of the pandemic will be in September makes it difficult to plan for the 2021-22 school year. Currently, our plan is to offer both "in person" Religious Education classes, as well as a virtual program online for 2021-22. This, of course, could change as circumstances dictate.

Finally, I want to thank you as parents for the extraordinary efforts you are making to share our Catholic Christian faith with your child(ren). I am grateful for your understanding, cooperation and patience as we move forward.

May God bless you as we live these last weeks of Lent and move into Holy Week. I pray your Easter will be joyful, peace-filled, and – yes, healthy and safe!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Rich LaVerghetta
Pastor

HAPPY SPRING!

March has been full of Hope at SJA! Our Lenten theme is Anchored in Hope. We are so happy that many of our students came back to in-person learning this month! We look forward to all of our students coming back for four full days after Easter! We continue to LIVE IN HOPE!

March Highlights:

- Dr. Seuss' Birthday
- Brain Week
- Lenten Liturgies
- St. Patrick's Day
- St. Joseph's Day
- Food Drive

Principal's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Peace! Know that the SJA School community hopes you and your loved ones are well. We pray for our parishioners and benefactors every day during our morning prayer. We are so grateful that many of you celebrate Friday liturgy with us in church or via live stream. We love it when you who are in church look back at the camera and wave to us! Be assured we look forward to the day when we can all celebrate Eucharist as we did in the "good old days."

Our Lenten theme, "ANCHORED IN HOPE", challenged us to live God's message of kindness, patience, compassion, grace, mercy and peace. During Read Across America Week, we remembered Dr. Seuss by collecting new socks for those in need on Crazy Sock Day, joined the SJA Parish food collection and collected money for the missions.

Along with our Lenten practices, we also had the opportunity to celebrate Brain Week and Albert Einstein's birthday. Both occasions gave us an opportunity to appreciate the gift of knowledge, wisdom and creativity. There are numerous Einstein quotes that can touch our hearts and souls. With Spring coming to life in every way possible: birds singing, crocuses and daffodils blooming, trees waiting to burst in to multi green colors and Easter knocking at our door, the following quote seems appropriate: "Look deep into nature and then you will understand everything better." Albert Einstein.

Following Brain Week and Albert Einstein's birthday we celebrated St. Patrick and St. Joseph. There were numerous leprechauns on our campus. We also remembered a variety of titles for St. Joseph: the Protector, the Teacher, the Listener, the Dreamer, etc.

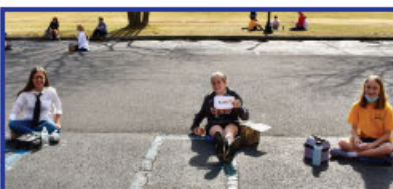

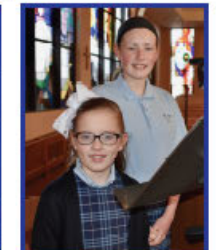

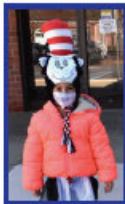

With the CDC changing the social distance expectations from 6 feet to 3 feet in the classroom, we are very happy to announce that we are moving from our hybrid scheduling to in person learning for any child who wishes on Monday, April 19. We will continue to offer total remote learning. We look forward to seeing many happy faces and hearts. We are also extremely excited to report that in September 2021 we plan to open for in person learning 5 days a week. It goes without saying that our students, teachers and parents have worked together as a marvelous team during these pandemic days. We are extremely thankful for their support and cooperation.

May your hearts and homes be filled with Easter HOPE as we begin the month of April. Together let us be aware of God's presence in creation and each other.

Happy Holy Week and Happy Easter!
