GOSPEL LUKE 9: 11-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people." Now the men there numbered about five thousand. Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty." They did so and made them all sit down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

FAITH SHARING QUESTION

Each of us has a calling 'in the community of the church' How are you living out that calling – that vocation – among others who share that same call?

HAPPY
DAY

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST/FATHER'S DAY/2022

YOU SATISFY THE HUNGRY HEART

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Has this ever happened to you: you leave the house, drive three miles down the road, and then realize you forgot your phone? Agh! Panic! Turn around. Go back. Even at the risk of being late to wherever it was I was going. Gotta get that phone.

In some ways, this is understandable. The phone has become for us, in this modern world, an important source of connection. To the wide world web. To news. To tell time (apparently many people don't wear a watch anymore). We order dinner with it. We get a ride with it. We do our banking. Oh, and yes, we even reach out to people, whether talking or texting or by other social media. So, to not have the phone is to feel in some way disconnected.

It is this pastor's dream that every Catholic feel the same way if they do not receive the Eucharist on Sunday. Because the Eucharist is the gift left to us by Jesus Christ to connect us to God and to one another. It is the source of nourishment and strength to live our lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. Without the Eucharist, we would be as lifeless as an uncharged phone.

We think we could not live without the phone. But we are probably only fooling ourselves. We fool ourselves even more when we live without Jesus Christ.

We meet a hungry crowd in today's Gospel from Luke. We hunger today, spiritually, emotionally, physically. Through the Eucharist, Christ feeds us today as He did his first disciples. Our Bishops have declared the next 3 years to be a time of Eucharistic Revival. If our phones, or any other "thing," has become more important to us than receiving Christ in the Eucharist, this will be a great time for us to refresh, to rekindle, to revive our understanding of and appreciation for the greatest gift Jesus left us. The gift of Himself.

Peace!

“I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE.”

JOHN 6:35

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP DAVID M. O'CONNELL, C.M., ON THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

As Christians we know that we need Christ to be present in our lives. He is our very sustenance as he reminded us: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you (John 6:53) ... The Lord accompanies us in many ways, but none as profound as when we encounter him in the Eucharist. On our journey toward eternal life, Christ nourishes us with his very self (USCCB, The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church, nos. 4-5, Nov. 17, 2021).” The Bishops of the United States have initiated a three-year, grassroots “Eucharistic Revival” of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of the Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. These words taken from the much-anticipated 2021 USCCB document on the Eucharist underscore the plentiful sources of the Catholic Church’s doctrinal teaching and belief throughout its history, beginning with the Lord Jesus’ own words at the Last Supper and repeated at every celebration of Holy Mass: “This is My Body, this is My Blood. Do this in memory of Me.”

The bread and wine consecrated by the priest at Holy Mass are not merely signs or symbols or reminders of the Lord Jesus’ words and intentions as some have suggested: They ARE his very Body and Blood given to us, they ARE his very Soul and Divinity. Their truth does not depend upon our belief. Their truth is the source and motivation of our belief.

In the Dogmatic Constitution of the Church, paragraph 11, the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council declared the Holy Eucharist to be “the source and summit (fount and apex) of the whole Christian life.” This was not, and is not a “new teaching.” It has been and remains the fundamental, non-negotiable teaching and belief of the Catholic Church’s faith from the very beginning. The Catechism of the Catholic Church affirms that “the Eucharist is the ‘source and summit’ of the Christian life. For in the Blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch (CCC, 1324).” As Catholics, then, our whole “way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking (St. Irenaeus, Adv, haer. 4,18, 5:PG 7/1, 1028).”

In the three-year Eucharistic Revival that will begin in the United States and in the Diocese of Trenton on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (formerly called the “Feast of Corpus Christi”), Catholics will be invited to prayerfully consider the Holy Eucharist in all its dimensions. Bishop Anthony Cozzens of the Diocese of Crookston in Minnesota, and chair of the USCCB Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis, has indicated that “the initiative aims to ‘renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.’” Acknowledging the pain and suffering occasioned by the ongoing COVID pandemic as well as the polarization and divisions encountered in our society, Bishop Cozzens has reflected “right now, the Church in the United States needs the healing and unity that can flow from enkindling our love for the Eucharist. ... This is not simply about good teaching but about encountering the living person of Jesus Christ, a transformational experience.”

Here in the Diocese of Trenton, activities related to the Eucharistic Revival at the diocesan level – the first year of the Revival – will be coordinated by Very Rev. Martin O’Reilly and Mr. Josue Arriola. Special Masses, Holy Hours, Adoration, and Benediction as well as homilies, talks, writings and recommended readings on the Holy Eucharist will take place throughout the Diocese and will be communicated to the clergy, religious and faithful through The Monitor, on diocesan websites and social media and in parish bulletins. It certainly is our hope that all of us in the Diocese will develop a deeper and more profound understanding and appreciation of the gift and mystery of the Holy Eucharist through active participation in weekly and daily Mass, through private prayer, Adoration and devotion to the Real Presence of the Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in our churches, and through a personal transformation that leads us to bring Christ’s loving presence into our communities.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You are already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
