LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL LUKE 10: 1-2, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town." The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/2022

4th of July

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have always loved living so close to "the room where it happened." Independence Hall, I mean, where our nation was founded. Where the principles we cherish were first discussed and debated and then penned. When I go into Philly for any occasion, whether for dinner or a show or a wedding, on my way out, even if it's a bit out of the way, I like to drive by that simple and stately brick structure on Chestnut Street. A bit corny perhaps, but what went on in that building truly changed the course of history.

Each year on the Fourth of July we are reminded of the principle embedded in the Declaration of Independence — that all of us are "created equal" — which remains the cornerstone of our government, our laws, and is, in fact, the heart of what it means to be an American.

How wonderful and special that as we celebrate this year's Fourth, we can include babies in their mother's womb as also "created equal!"

Those of us who truly believe "certain unalienable rights" do indeed come from our Creator — namely, God — must continue to do all that we can to help our country ensure and protect everyone's right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. This begins right here in our own homes, neighborhoods, communities. As persons of faith, we believe we have not been put here to take care only of ourselves. The Holy Spirit is always guiding, inspiring and challenging us to find God's presence in each other. This is the mission Jesus entrusted his first disciples with, and so with us today!

I wish you all a happy and safe 4th of July!

Peace!

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

- 1) Jesus sets the mission in place for His disciples. Why do you think Jesus tells His disciples to "carry no money, no sack, no sandals and greet no one along the way?"
- 2) Why do you think he told them to "pair up" and travel that way?

THE EUCHARIST AND SACRAMENTALITY

THE SECOND IN A WEEKLY SERIES ON THE EUCHARIST

BY TOMAS VILLACIS, SEMINARIAN

It is no coincidence that we call the Eucharist the Blessed Sacrament, as it, of all the seven which Christ instituted, is the principal sacrament, the greatest of all. This becomes clear once we understand the essence of sacramentality itself. The Catechism calls the sacraments “efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us.” Breaking this down a bit, let us first ask what is meant by signs. In the sacraments, the sign is the outward element, or matter and form of the sacrament. So, for example, in baptism the sign is composed of the running water (matter) and the words (form), “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” In the Eucharist, the outward sign consists of the matter, bread and wine, and the form, which is the prayer during the consecration.

But what is signified by visible form and matter of the sacraments? The visible sacraments are signs of invisible grace. However, recalling the definition from the catechism, they are not only signs but efficacious signs of that grace. That is, they are not signs which merely point to grace, but they actually make the reality of grace present. Consider the difference between the word “Eucharist” and the Eucharist itself. The former is a sign, but one which merely points to a reality that remains absent. Writing the word “Eucharist” on a piece of paper does not turn the paper into Jesus. The latter, however, is a sign too, but is a sign that truly makes present the reality which it signifies; the bread and wine truly become the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

Now that we understand these two aspects of the sacraments, that they consist both of an outward sign, and that they truly make grace present, we can also understand the essence of sacramentality itself: God mediates Himself to us through His creation. God is able to use what He has created, such as bread and wine, and through it, bring us into union with Him. Thus, we can see that Christ is the primordial sacrament. By becoming incarnate in the person of Jesus Christ, God was made present to us by coming down to our level. God used a piece of creation, human nature, to save us, so that we might have eternal life with Him. Hence the Eucharist truly is the greatest sacrament, as it is the fullest expression of what a sacrament is. God is mediating Himself, in the Divinity of Jesus Christ, through an aspect of creation, human nature, i.e. body and blood of Jesus Christ. So, when we next receive this most Blessed Sacrament, perhaps we can reflect on its grandeur: the God Who is infinitely above us has, out of love, come to meet us in our weakness and finitude; He who has created all has come to us, His creation, through that very creation.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES!

June 2022

Message from the Class of 2022! By Andrew Cataldo

On behalf of the Class of 2022, I'd like to thank everyone here for coming to this graduation ceremony! Some of us have been here since kindergarten, while others might have joined us later in the years, but nevertheless, we're all students of SJA! We have grown so much here, extending our faith through prayer and sacraments while being surrounded by wonderful people, who have helped us along the way!

One of the best memories I have from SJA was from 2nd grade. I had been absent for most of the month of September. When I came back, I received the best welcome ever! Everyone in the classroom gave me a massive group hug; I was so happy to be back. That's what it means to be part of the SJA community.

Now let us take some time to thank everyone here at SJA for helping us grow and learn in a God-centered environment. I'd first like to thank our principal, Sr. Pat, for all the kindness she showed us. We especially remember fun assemblies, reading the book Old Turtle and watching the amaryllis grow every Advent. She always greeted us as we entered each and every morning with a smile and a hello.

Thank you to all of the teachers we've had throughout our time at SJA, including our specials teachers, who've taught us for 9 whole years! We have learned so many important and fascinating things, and I'm sure all of our teachers have even learned some new things themselves.

Thank you to all of our priests: Father Rich, Father Richard, Father Jorge, and Father J.M. You have helped us participate and pay attention to Mass, especially through your incredible homilies. Thanks, also, to all of the parishioners who support SJA School. We appreciate your generosity and support of Catholic education.

There are many others who have helped make our school great throughout the years: our lunch ladies who made delicious lunches every day, our maintenance staff which kept our school nice and clean, Officer Brian who kept us safe and shared a smile whenever we entered the door, Mrs. Kalvaitis and Mrs. Donahue who took care of our cuts and scrapes, Mrs. DeVoto and Mrs. Paradise who were amazing secretaries, and Mrs. Jochem and Mrs. Carlson who were great counselors.

It is also very important that we thank our parents who are right here right now. We might sometimes disagree with them, or get a bit frustrated, but in the end they love us and will always be there for us. Our parents could have sent us to a public school without paying a cent for tuition, but they didn't. They sent us here to SJA, and I'd say it was worth it! So don't be afraid to give your mom and dad a kiss and hug, for sending us to this amazing school, and caring for us every day!

So many things have happened throughout my time here that I will cherish forever. Some were great moments or events our school held, like our First Holy Communion, the Christmas Play, and this graduation celebration. Other great memories involved my classmates, doing crazy things to make me laugh, or just making my day better. So thank you to my classmates, for putting up with me while still making me laugh and have a good time. Give yourself a good pat on the back - you truly earned it!

Finally, we thank God. Thank you for all the blessings we've had. We ask You to guide us through our lives, to help us make the best possible choices, and as we move on, help our faith grow deeper so that we can live spectacular lives, by helping others around us, and letting others help us. Amen I say to you, as our life continues!

To quote myself, "Life is like a long maze, each split path we see is a decision we make, and each turn has a new surprise. You're never alone in this maze, you're always in a massive group to help you out. This maze is not infinite, and some day you'll find the exit. And there it matters every split path you took, and every decision you ever made." Now we are all going on different paths in this maze, but never forget that even on different paths, we are all in the same maze, all together.

Congratulations to the Class of 2022!

Principal's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Peace! Happy Summer! May these days bring you and yours a chance to be renewed in body and spirit. Thank you for the many ways you supported St. Joan of Arc School throughout this academic year. Your prayers and participation in our fundraisers, along with your unsolicited donations are greatly appreciated.

We would like to give a special shout out to those who are able to attend 9:00 AM daily mass. Your presence is very special to us. Throughout the past two years we have prayed with and for you every Friday either virtually or in person. As COVID restrictions changed, we joined you as one grade at a time, then two grades, then three grades until our final liturgy when all students were able to be present in person. We so appreciated you moving to the left side so that the children could have the center and right side keeping a respectful distance. June 17, 2022 will be etched in our memories as one of these special and sacred moments. How true it is that sometimes you really don't appreciate someone or something until it isn't there. Be assured we were so very grateful to pray with our parish community on the last day of school. There definitely was an amazing positive energy throughout the liturgy that flowed into our day! We are forever grateful.

Our annual Field Day and Art Show were great events keeping the SJA Spirit alive. While our Annual Talent Show was virtual, we enjoyed the talents of our students the afternoon before our ending Retreat Day. The Talent Show was posted on Google Classroom so that parents were also able to enjoy.

The Class of 2022 was blessed to be able to celebrate their milestone with our traditional 8th grade trip to Baltimore, 8th grade dance and graduation. This year, we had an additional stop on our trip. We visited St. Elizabeth Ann Seaton's home and the classroom where Catholic Education began. It was a small room inside her home where the importance of faith combined with academics was taught. That same message continues today. We wish them well as they begin their new adventures into high school. They will take the SJA Spirit with them to a number of different high schools. Along with a variety of medals, plaques and certificates, we are very excited to announce that $107,275.00 was awarded to the Class of 2022! We are extremely proud of all of their accomplishments.

Children in Grades K-7 had their annual closing Retreat Day on Thursday, June 16. They had a variety of Discover God's Love activities. It was a wonderful way to reflect on and be grateful for the blessings of 2021-2022 school year.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy and safe summer. We look forward to celebrating liturgy with you in person. See you at the Carnival!

God's Blessings,
Sister Pat
