HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL

Luke 15:1-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them he addressed this parable. "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

"Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it? And when she does find it, she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.' In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Then he said, "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns, who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/2022

SOMETHING ELSE TO REMEMBER

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

September 11, 2001, the day the towers came down, that day was a Tuesday. This terrible attack took the lives of nearly 3000 people in New York City, the Pentagon and in Somerset County Pennsylvania. Thousands more were injured. That Sunday we came to Church. Our Churches were packed. The Gospel we heard was the one we hear today.

The story of the prodigal son.

A story of mercy and forgiveness.

Twenty-one years ago, in the midst of that horrible week of such sadness and devastation, as I read the upcoming Gospel and thought about a homily, I remember thinking, "Really, God? The Prodigal Son this week?"

But yes. In the midst of that week, in the midst of this week, in the midst of every week, we need to hear this story because in this story we hear about the human condition and also about God. We hear how we as human beings have been given everything and yet there is the propensity to not recognize what we've been given, to squander it, even sometimes to destroy it. And we also hear how God is always ready to embrace us, to lift us up, to heal our wounds, to make us new and give us new life. There it is. The Gospel. Our story. God's story.

We call it "The Prodigal Son." We could also name it: "God never gives up on us." Never. While not forgetting the events of 21 years ago on 9/11, let's also remember that.

Peace! Today! Every day!

Fr. Rich

THE GROTTO IN THE CHURCH

Our very creative associate pastor, Fr. JM, has built a beautiful grotto in our Sanctuary to the left of the altar and pulpit. In this grotto he has placed a statue of the Blessed Mother. Thank you, Fr. JM! It will remain in our sanctuary from September 8, the Feast of the Birth of Mary, until October 13, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. As we begin a three year Eucharistic Revival, it is good to remind us that Mary, the Virgin Mother of God, was herself a tabernacle! Within her womb she lovingly and faithfully carried the Son of God, Jesus! From the tabernacle of her womb, our Savior was born. Now, at every Mass, we receive the Eucharist, the Body of Christ, and we are called to carry Christ, to bring and to share Christ with all we meet. May we do it faithfully like Mary!

WOMEN OF FAITH

September 26th 7pm Pedata Hall

MY BELOVED DAUGHTERS: NO GREATER LOVE

This season will focus on God's great care for us, his beloved daughters, and each month we will share the impact of God's stories of love on our faith journeys.

Our first speaker is parishioner and Steering Committee member Dede Humphries, who has selected Jeremiah 29:11 as the focus of her presentation:

"For I know the thoughts that I think towards you," says the lord, "Thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and pray to me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek me and find me when you search for me with all your heart."

Each month, our speakers will be followed by table discussions and fellowship. Coffee, tea, and bottled water are available. We are always happy to welcome new and returning members, and our meetings are open to any of the women in your life you may wish to invite. Please contact Kathy Burns at (609) 923-7222 for more information or to sign up for our email list. We are looking forward to seeing you on September 26!

THE KINDNESS OF OUR GOD MEDITATIONS WITH MEISTER ECKHART

Wednesday, September 28 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM

The simple one-liners of Meister Eckhart are profound, heartfelt and impactful. Here are 2 samples. "God does not ask anything else of you except that you let yourself go and let God be God...in you." "Be prepared at all times for the gifts of God and be ready always for new ones as God is 1000 times more ready to give than we are to receive." We will spend the morning being nourished by his wisdom. Donation: $25, includes materials and lunch. Zoom: $20

A CONTEMPLATIVE TELLING OF THE STORY OF MARY & HER SON

4 Mondays 9:30 – 11:30 AM

Enter the heart of Mary through the contemplative words of John Lynch's spiritual classic, A Woman Wrapped in Silence. We will use the first half of this wonderful narrative to help us to go deeper into the humility and strength of the Blessed Mother and her love for her son and us all. Then, if you would like to continue, Part Two will be offered in Winter/Spring 2023 to coincide with the Liturgical Year. Donation: $80

DELIGHT IN GOD A MORNING WITH ST. HILDEGARD OF BINGEN

This most recent Doctor of the Church offers us simple ways to be more aware of God's generous love. Donation: $25, includes materials and lunch. Zoom: $20
