HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples:

"You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

Reflect on a time when you were in need and someone responded to that need with generosity. How were they God's light for you?

Can you think of a time when you had the opportunity to be God's light for someone else?

5th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / 2023

"JESUS LOOKING AT YOU"

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Imagine Jesus looking into your eyes and saying, "You are the salt of the earth. You are the light of the world." How would you feel? Afraid? Affirmed? Challenged? Confused?

Next time you flip a switch (or click a command on your smartphone) and turn on a lamp; next time you salt your scrambled eggs (or whatever food you salt), consider what Jesus might be saying when he names his disciples, you and me, these two things: light and salt.

Bring your insights to prayer.

Talk it over with someone you trust.

Ask yourself: what does salt and light have to do with the Beatitudes which Jesus had just given in the verse before it?

I hope you will be more affirmed than afraid and more challenged than confused.

Peace!

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

7 TIPS FOR TEENS (AND EVERYONE ELSE) TO GET THE MOST OUT OF MASS

"If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy." I love this. St. John Vianney nailed it. He also declared, "There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us."

The Mass is a paradox in which God has interwoven infinite with finite; mortal with immortal; everlasting with time-limited. It truly is an experience of heaven on earth. It's an opportunity to be in the physical presence of the creator of the universe (insert mind-blowing emoji here).

Here are 7 strategies to help your teens (and everyone else) get the most out of their Mass experiences:

- 1. Ask your pastor to offer a "teaching Mass" for your teens — explaining every detail from beginning to end. The Mass is rich with tradition and history, from the vestments worn to the prayers offered. Knowing why we do what we do in the Mass is enlightening.
- 2. Explain the transcendentals — beauty, goodness, and truth. Invite your teens to reflect on the one that helps them draw near to God most. Then encourage them to observe where they see this present in the Mass the next time they attend.
- 3. Focus on the five senses — seeing, hearing, smelling, tasting, and touching. Send your teens on an assignment to discover all the ways the senses are involved during the Mass.
- 4. Encourage your teens (and self) to do "preMass prep." This could include going to confession, reading the Sunday readings before the liturgy, and personally reflecting on questions such as: What would distract me from paying attention and fully participating? What are the needs in my life for which I can pray? What are the needs in the lives of my family, friends, and community?
- 5. Participate. Participate. Participate. This is twofold. It includes sitting, kneeling, standing, singing, responding, reciting, praying, shaking (hands), giving (money), but it also means being an active lay leader. Teens can be ushers, lectors, cantors, and extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist.
- 6. Plan road trips to other Catholic parishes and attend their liturgies. The beauty of the Catholic Church and its parish communities is that they are the same, but different. Explore and experience the uniqueness and beauty of each one.
- 7. Don't take for granted that your teens are going to Mass on Sunday. The reality is that many don't. Ask them to go. And if their families don't attend, invite them to sit with you.

Love You; Do the New

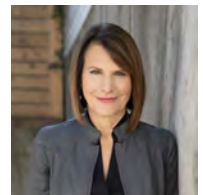

Thursday February 9th 7:30 pm Pedata Hall

Lu Ann Cahn is the author of the inspirational memoir I Dare Me, an entertaining look back on a year that changed everything for her. The book grew out of a blog, "Year of Firsts," which chronicled this veteran journalist, mother and survivor's daily adventures as she pushed herself to try something new every single day to get her life "unstuck." She was inspired by her daughter, Alexa, to go on this year-long adventure while working her full-time "day job" as an eight-time Emmy award-winning journalist with NBC10 News in Philadelphia.

Presenter is Lu Ann Cahn.

Everyone is welcome.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

So much more than a Bible Study

Come as You Are

Next Meeting
Wednesday, February 8th

Opening Your Heart: We will view a Connect Coffee video, "Marriage Transformed by Grace". In this lesson we will discuss where we should turn with our unmet expectations in our relationships.

Keeping In Balance: This week we will view a Connect Coffee video, "Getting a Grip Through Simplicity". We will talk about how God wants us to pursue holiness, not perfection.

Beholding His Glory: This week we will discuss King David in Lesson 2. Throughout David's life, the one constant was his return to his Heavenly Father. Like us, David wasn't perfect and had a long list of falls after his name but instead of responding to that truth with self-pity, David turned to God, trusting that His mercy would be enough to cleanse him . . . we should do the same!
