We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL Jn 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans. — Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, ' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." he woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

3rd Sunday of Lent / 2023

"Well, of course!"

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Jesus meets a Samaritan woman by a well. Jacob's well, it's called. It's there, by a well that Jesus and the woman have a conversation. The conversation begins when Jesus asks her for a drink of water. It quickly gets deep, as deep as the well. Jesus knows her. Jesus knows her deepest thirst.

It is there by the well, in that encounter, in that conversation, that the woman begins to recognize who this Jesus is. Her heart is stirred. Her eyes begin to open. He is more than just a man. More than a prophet. He is the Messiah, and by the end of the story, the woman and many people of that town know Jesus as the Savior of the world. Which means: Jesus is the well.

That day the woman went to Jacob's well and she met Jesus, the Wellspring of Living Water.

It's the third week in Lent. Easter is still four Sundays away. It's a long season. Well, of course it is. Lent doesn't diddle with the surface of things. Lent wants to move us, take us, deeper.

When Jesus asks you for a drink of water, what He is really asking for is your heart.

Good Lent!

Fr. Rich

Uh-oh! This year St. Patrick's Day ...

is on a Friday during Lent. Ugh. What will you do with all that corned beef? Eat it. Bishop O'Connell has given everyone a dispensation from the Friday abstinence from meat. So, enjoy your St. Patrick's Day celebration. It's a great feast day and he is a great saint. But let's take this a bit deeper. Remember: Lent isn't just about obeying rules. It's about going deeper. It's about a conversion of the heart (read the above letter.)

And St. Joseph's Day this Year ...

falls on a Sunday in Lent which means it will get moved to Monday, March 20th. This is another great feast in our Church, and another great saint.

Both St. Joseph and St. Patrick gave their hearts to Christ and doing God's work. We can ask them to help us do the same!

Re-Visiting Re-Lent Week 3

Re-Lent word for this week is:
RECOGNIZE

Re-cognize? What? Well, it's not quite a RE word but it certainly goes with the Gospel today. It's long, but make sure you read it: John 4:5-42.

“Recognize,” in its Latin roots means “to get to know again.” That makes RECOGNIZE a very appropriate word during this season of Lent as we try to Get to Know Jesus Again. How is it going?

How does the Eucharist help you to recognize Christ in your life?

How does the Eucharist help you to recognize Christ in others?

Jesus knows all about the Samaritan woman at the well. How does it make you feel that Jesus knows all about you, too?

Jesus is the Wellspring of Living Water. How has He given you new life?

Re-Think this Week:

Daily Mass

Monday through Saturday at 9am
Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7am

Eucharistic Adoration

on Tuesday at 5pm with Benediction at 6:30pm ... Or stop in the Church during any day for quiet prayer before Christ in the Tabernacle.

Stations of the Cross

Confessions

Every Saturday at 4pm

AREA PENANCE SERVICES:

St. Mary of the Lakes Church
March 21st, 7pm
St. Isaac Jogues Church
April 4th, 7pm

Jesus! Go on, practice saying his name out loud (not merely when you stub your toe). Use His name in prayer. Call on Him. Give Him your deepest self. Invite Him to the place within you no one has ever seen. Let him live there. You will be fully known and fully loved and fully alive ... and you will begin to know yourself as God knows you.

Our speaker will be followed by table discussions and fellowship. Bottled water will be available. We welcome all new members, family and friends. If you have been away for awhile, Lent is a wonderful time to let God lead you back.

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

Every week when you walk into church the water of Baptism is there for you to bless yourself. It is a reminder that God loves you so much that you, in baptism, have received the Spirit, and are now God's child.

The woman at the well had her life changed forever. Everything changed for the good. In your life so far, have you opened yourself to Jesus fully, as she did, and experienced a love and freedom you even couldn't name? Name it now. It is your gift from God.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

So much more than a Bible Study

Come as You Are

Next Meeting
Wednesday, March 15th

Opening Your Heart: We will be watching the Connect Coffee video from Lesson 18, "Reaching Your Child's Heart". We so badly want to teach our children well, but how often do we discipline our children for outward behavior rather than reaching the heart?

Together we will learn to discipline those we love in the way that God intended, with the truths that God values.

Keeping In Balance: This week, Lesson 18 is a Connect Coffee video, "Getting A Grip When It All Falls Apart".

Beholding His Glory: This week we will be reviewing Lesson 6; "Isaiah 53". In a vision, God revealed His glory to Isaiah. His vision filled his heart and mind and propelled him into ministry and kept him faithful.

Spiritual Adoption 6th MONTH

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound and her movements can be felt by her mother. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother to continue her pregnancy and seek the help she may need. We pray she knows that there are crisis pregnancy centers available to assist her as well as her church community. Please continue to pray daily for the life of your spiritually adopted baby.

Please pray daily the Prayer of Bishop Fulton J. Sheen:

*Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who may be in danger of abortion. Amen*

Handyman/Custodian Position – Part-time Our Lady of Good Council Moorestown, NJ

Candidate will need to be experienced and comfortable doing minor repairs and painting, such as wallboard repair, along with general maintenance across our campus. The Handyman/Custodian will also coordinate with outside contractors who are involved with larger projects from time-to-time as needed. This is a year-round position, supporting our school from September-June, and our general parish facilities throughout the year as well. Hours need to be somewhat flexible based on parish activities. Salary and benefits are commensurate with experience. This could be an excellent opportunity for a parishioner recently retired who likes to work with tools. Interested candidates should contact our Business Manager, Jim Flanagan, at FlanaganJ@OLGCNJ.org. If you or someone you know might be interested, we would love to hear from you!

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

If you would like to publish an announcement in the bulletin, please send all requests to publications@stjoans.org. All requests must be submitted no later than the Monday before the weekend you would like them published.
