We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL

Jn 9:1,6-9, 13-17, 34-38

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" — which means Sent —. So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is," but others said, "No, he just looks like him." He said, "I am."

They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." So some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath." But others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And here was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, "What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

They answered and said to him, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" Then they threw him out.

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." He said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshiped him.

Generous Parishioners,

We thanked you once, however your overwhelming generosity warrants another huge heartfelt thanks!!

We more than tripled our goal and were able to provide the Ronald McDonald House in Camden with many additional bags, taking care of that need for the better part of a year. The overflow was distributed to many additional folks, through various ministries, who are having struggles to make ends meet. Our parish was able to ease some pressure for many people and in many ways, once again!!

Note: there were 2 large black trash bags left in the Gathering Room for the McDonald drive. Can whoever left those bags kindly reach out to the rectory to answer a quick question please? Thank you again to All.

4th Sunday of Lent / 2023

"Two to Repair"

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

There don't seem to be as many "repairmen" these days. In the olden days, when I was a kid, if the TV broke down, you called a repairman to fix it. It was like that for a lot of appliances. Things got fixed, not thrown out.

Human beings are not appliances. When people get "broken" we do not discard them, we do not put them out in the garbage with the other junk. Jesus knows this well. Every person is of value ... even "broken." Jesus loves us even with our ragged edges, our scars and blemishes, our knicks and bruises and deep gashes, even if we wobble or tilt or can barely move at all.

In today's Gospel, Jesus heals a blind man. I believe Jesus wants to help all of us to see ... to see again ... to see in a new way, to see the way God sees. To see ourselves and each other the way God sees us.

I like very much that in the word "repair," is "pair," as in two. A favorite composer of mine once wrote a song called, "It Takes Two." It takes two to heal, to mend, to restore, recover, repair.

Whatever needs to be repaired in our own lives, Jesus is there for us. Jesus wants to help.

Good Lent!

Fr. Rich

THANK YOU, SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH

Usually on the 19th, this year the Feast of St. Joseph falls on Monday, March 20th. It's a good time for us to remember and give thanks for the presence of the Sisters of St. Joseph who have served our parish since its founding and continue to serve here today! We have been blessed by their generous, faithful service to our School, our Sunday Liturgy, as well as to our Faith Formation and Pastoral Care of the Sick.

Currently, seven Sisters of St. Joseph reside here in our convent. Along with Sr. Pat Pycik, Sr. Stephanie Cymerman and Sr. Peg Boyle, who serve our parish, living here are Sr. Alicia Perna, Sr. Pat Avicolti, Sr. Kathy Burton, and Sr. Judy Cianfrogna, who serve elsewhere. May God bless them, and all the retired Sisters at the Villa. They have certainly blessed us with all the love, care and goodness they share with our Community!

Re-Visiting Re-Lent Week 4

Our “Re” Word this Week is REPAIR:

To fix. To mend. To make whole. To make good. Take a look at what was in the bulletin 3 years ago when today’s Gospel was last heard:

How interesting that on our first Sunday not together in Church for Mass because of an illness, a pandemic, we are given a Gospel in which Jesus heals a man born blind. No doubt in all our recent prayers we have been calling upon Jesus to heal this great infirmity we know as COVID-19 or the Coronavirus. What we might find in this Gospel (John 9:1-41 ... it’s a long one, getting us ready for all the long Holy Week readings!) is that God wants to repair all our sight. Perhaps through this pandemic, we will all see life and each other differently. We will see through the “stuff” of life that doesn’t mean nearly as much as spending quality time together, listening to each other, laughing and crying together, helping each other. Perhaps we will see into the heart of others and discover their goodness. Perhaps we will even see beyond our borders to the connectedness of the human race. Perhaps we will see the need for unity and working together. One thing for sure Jesus teaches in this Gospel is not to see God as the bringer of pestilence and illness. That’s not God’s work. God’s love and presence in our life always works to repair, to restore, to heal and make whole. And, the closer we get to Jesus, the more we begin to see that this is our reason for being in each other’s lives as well.

Re-Think this Week:

For Your Reflection and Discussion:

What is your “blind side?”

Is there a difference between being healed and being cured?

How does the Eucharist affect your sight? How does the Eucharist help you see?

In what ways does Eucharist bring healing to you and to our world?

FAITH SHARING QUESTIONS

Jesus uses the gifts of the earth and the gifts of His body to heal the man born blind. In our own ways, being made in the image of Christ, we too can use the gifts of the earth and ourselves to help others on the way to healing.

Can you name a few ways that you personally can be of help to another this week on their way to healing. For starters: Just going to see them, or bringing flowers..... keeping it personal ... what else... and who will you help this week?
