HOW TO BECOME CATHOLIC

We have special programs for children, teens and adults who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments.

Please call 856-983-0077.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Congratulations to all who have been recently engaged! We invite you to consider a Church wedding (contrary to what you may have heard, Church weddings do not have to be BIG church weddings!). We would be honored to help you prepare for your wedding day. Please call the Parish Office (ask for Pat—856.983.0077) at your earliest convenience.

Marriage prep in the Church is easier (and more fun) than you may think!

CONSIDERING A DESTINATION WEDDING?

If you are considering a destination wedding, please give us a call to discuss available options to have your marriage blessed as one of the seven Sacraments. Even if you aren't sure what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, give us a call. We think you will be pleasantly surprised!

ALREADY CIVILLY MARRIED?

Or married in another faith tradition? We would love to talk to you about having your marriage blessed in the Catholic Church.

GOSPEL

Jn 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

MORNING PRAYER WITH COMMUNION

7AM in Church

Monday - Friday

Join us as we lift up our prayer petitions for each other along with receiving the Eucharist. A beautiful way to start the morning with the Psalms and praising God.

Hallmark has a Grandparents Day and so does the Catholic Church! Made official by Pope Francis, WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY is celebrated Sunday closest to the Feast of Sts. Anne and Joachim, the grandparents of Jesus (July 26th). This year's theme is taken from Psalm 71: "Do not cast me off in my old age!"

Loneliness can occur at any age, and certainly our seniors can experience it, especially if they find themselves alone. We are so blessed to have many grandparents, great-grandparents and elderly in our parish. They share with us so many gifts, including wisdom, joy and enduring faith. They inspire us and help us to persevere when times are tough. May we make special efforts to accompany them and to include them, helping them to know their life still has great purpose and meaning and importance.

17th Sunday Ordinary Time / 2024

ROLLING EYES

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

First: If you are wondering why all of a sudden we have, in the Year of St. Mark, a gospel passage from St. John, here's why: Mark's Gospel is short and cannot fill in the entire liturgical calendar, so the Church dips into the Gospel of John to "fill in." We'll be back to Mark in September.

Second, and more importantly: Today's Gospel is a familiar one. The miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes is found in all four Gospels, but I think I personally like best John's telling of it. In John's Gospel we hear of the disciples' exasperation over the problem at hand: a very large and hungry crowd and no food to feed them. We also hear of Andrew, one of the twelve, who does notice and points out, with a bit of hopefulness, a boy in the crowd who has five barley loaves and two fishes. Then sinking into defeatism, Andrew quickly adds, "But what good are these for so many."

What follows is the part I really love. Jesus apparently completely ignores Andrew's negativity. Tell everyone to sit down, He says (actually, recline, because that was the eating position back then). In my imagination (not reported in the Gospel), I see Jesus rolling his eyes at the apostles' lack of imagination, lack of trust, lack of hope, lack of faith. Jesus overlooks all this "lack of" and with very little does very much.

I also see the apostles' rolling their eyes when Jesus lifts up a couple of loaves of bread and blesses them. It makes me think: How many times have I rolled my eyes at the Gospel, thinking it naïve, too pie in the sky, nice sentiment but not very realistic in the real world.

Who knows? For every time I've rolled my eyes, maybe there have been Divine Eyes rolling right back at me. Open your eyes, Jesus may be saying. Look at all the love of God can do!!

Peace!

PARISH LIFE

Diocesan Retired, Elderly AND Infirm Priests FUND

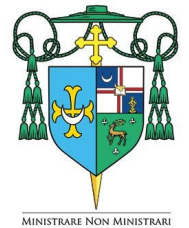

Collection to be held in all parishes of the Diocese of Trenton

July 27-28, 2024

PLEASE BE GENEROUS

How can we care and provide for them?

A message from Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., on the Collection for the Diocesan Retired, Elderly and Infirm Priests Fund On the weekend of July 27-28, as we celebrate the feast of the grandparents of Jesus, I am also mindful of the 85 priests of the Diocese of Trenton who have "borne the heat of the day (Matthew 20:12)" in our parishes and institutions, serving and ministering to us and who are now retired. They are truly our "spiritual grandparents." Many continue to offer Masses and share the Sacraments in our parishes. How can we thank them for the witness of their lives of faith? How can we help take care of and provide for them?

As Bishop, I invite all the clergy and faithful of the Diocese, once again, to show the generosity for which I have come to know you so well by contributing to the third annual collection for the retired, elderly and infirm priests of the Diocese. They, too, deserve our love and gratitude in their twilight years! May God bless your kindness and shower his abundant graces upon all our beloved grandparents, "spiritual grandparents" and all the elderly of our Diocese.

The diocesan collection coincides with World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. To learn more about this annual observance, and to find a link to a message from Pope Francis, visit www.TrentonMonitor.com and click on NEWS>DIOCESE.

BAPTISMS We warmly welcome the following children who were baptized into our community the weekend of July 21st:
